Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan at full cost, was effective February 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On October 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by December 15, 2017 or you might lose your current health insurance coverage.

On November 21, 2017, NYSOH sent you a notice about your plan enrollment stating that your coverage in your qualified health plan will end on December 31, 2017 because you are no longer eligible to enroll in your plan.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2017.

On January 5, 2018, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective February 1, 2018.

Also on January 5, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your qualified health plan insofar as it did not begin on January 1, 2018.

On January 6, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the January 5, 2018 application, stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective February 1, 2018.

Also on January 6, 2018, NYSOH issued a letter confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan at full cost, effective February 1, 2018.

On March 21, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your NYSOH account indicates that you elected to receive all of your notices from NYSOH by electronic communication.
- 2) NYSOH uploaded a renewal notice to your account on October 17, 2017, identified as document [REDACTED].
- 3) You testified that you did not know that you needed to update your account until [REDACTED] when you were informed by your doctor's office that you no longer had health insurance coverage.
- 4) The record reflects that on January 5, 2018, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.
- 5) You testified that you are seeking enrollment in your qualified health plan as of January 1, 2018.
- 6) You testified that you searched your email inbox and located an alert sent from NYSOH dated October 17, 2017 regarding a new notice being uploaded to your NYSOH account.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Annual Eligibility Redetermination

Generally, NYSOH must conduct annual eligibility redeterminations for qualified individuals who are seeking financial assistance through insurance affordability programs for the upcoming year, such as tax credits and cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, or Child Health Plus. In such cases, NYSOH is required to request that the qualified individual provide updated income and family size information for use in an eligibility redetermination for the upcoming year (see 45 CFR § 155.335(a) and (b)).

NYSOH must send an annual renewal notice that contains the information by which NYSOH will use to redetermine a qualified individual's projected eligibility for that year (45 CFR § 155.335(c)(3)). If a qualified individual does not respond to the notice after a 30-day period, NYSOH must redetermine that individual's eligibility using the information and projected eligibility provided in the annual renewal notice (45 CFR § 155.335(g), (h)). NYSOH must ensure this redetermination is effective on the first day of the coverage year or in accordance with the rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) regarding effective dates, whichever is later (45 CFR § 155.335(i)). The rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) are not pertinent here.

Redetermination During a Benefit Year

Any change resulting from redeterminations during a benefit year should be made effective the first day of the month following the date of the notice of redetermination, except that redeterminations resulting from changes made after a date specified by the state, which can be no earlier than the 15th of the month, may not be made effective until the first day of the month after the month following the date of the notice of redetermination. (45 CFR § 155.330(f)(1) and (2)). New York has specified that changes made after the 15th of a given month will take effect the month after the following month.

Electronic Notices

If the individual elects electronic communications, NYSOH must send an email or other electronic communication alerting the individual that a notice has been posted to his or her account and send a notice by regular mail within three business days if the electronic communication cannot be delivered (45 CFR § 155.230(d); 42 CFR § 435.918(b)(4), (5)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan at full cost was effective February 1, 2018.

NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for health insurance annually. NYSOH must issue a renewal notice that contains the individual's projected eligibility. If an individual does not respond to this notice, NYSOH must issue an eligibility determination for the upcoming coverage year based on the information contained in the renewal notice.

On October 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an annual renewal notice in your case. That notice was uploaded to your NYSOH account on October 17, 2017 (document # [REDACTED]). The notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by December 15, 2017 or you might lose your current health insurance coverage.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your enrollment in a qualified health plan was terminated effective December 31, 2017.

You testified that you did not know that you needed to update your account until [REDACTED] when you were informed by your doctor's office that you no longer had health insurance coverage. Your NYSOH account confirms that you elected to receive all of your notices from NYSOH by electronic communication. However, you testified that you searched your email inbox and located an alert sent from NYSOH dated October 17, 2017 regarding a new notice being uploaded to your NYSOH account.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your annual renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated in order to ensure your enrollment in your health plan would continue.

The record shows that on January 5, 2018, you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan.

When an individual changes information in their application on or before the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from the change effective the first day of the following month. Additionally, the date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected from the first day to an including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month.

Therefore, NYSOH's January 6, 2018 eligibility determination and enrollment confirmation notices are AFFIRMED because they properly began your enrollment in your qualified health plan on February 1, 2018.
