Decision

Decision Date: March 28, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000025788

[REDACTED]

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for an advance payment of the premium tax credit (APTC), or cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective January 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On December 14, 2017, you applied for health insurance and financial assistance through NYSOH.

That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2018.

Also on December 14, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not eligible for financial assistance.

On December 15, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2018. The notice stated that you were ineligible for financial assistance because APTC payments were made to your insurance company to reduce your premium costs in a prior year and NYSOH could not tell if you filed a federal tax return for that year.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 31, 2018, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance.

On February 1, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective March 1, 2018. The notice stated that you were ineligible for financial assistance because APTC payments were made to your insurance company to reduce your premium costs in a prior year and NYSOH could not tell if you filed a federal tax return for that year.

Also on February 1, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2018.

On March 1, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You submitted an application to NYSOH for financial assistance on December 14, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you usually file your tax returns electronically.
- 3) You testified that you have completed your 2016 tax return, but that you have not filed it.
- 4) You are seeking financial assistance with health insurance as of January 1, 2018.
- 5) You testified that you expect to earn $5,200.00 per month in 2018, which yields a gross annual expected income of $62,400.00. You also testified that you listed your net earnings in your application.
- 6) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.
- 7) Your application states that you live in Kings County, NY.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

NYSOH may not determine a tax filer eligible for APTC if APTC was paid on the tax filer's behalf in a previous year, and a tax return was not filed for that previous year (45 CFR § 155.305(f)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals, whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to receive APTC, or CSR, effective January 1, 2018.

The record shows that on December 14, 2017, you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request for financial assistance. NYSOH then issued an eligibility determination notice that in part stated that you were ineligible for financial assistance. The notice further stated that this was because you received APTC in a previous year and NYSOH was unable to tell if you filed your tax return for that year.

At the time of your December 14, 2017 application, NYSOH had not received information from the IRS that your household's tax return for 2016 had been properly filed. If NYSOH is unable to obtain information that a prior year's tax return has been filed, NYSOH may not determine a tax filer eligible for APTC, if APTC was paid on the tax filer's behalf in a previous year.

You testified that you usually file your tax returns electronically. You testified that you have completed your 2016 tax return, but that you have not filed it.

Since you confirmed that you have not filed your 2016 tax return, the data sources NYSOH relied on to make its determination on December 14, 2017 stating that you had not filed your 2016 tax return were correct.

Only applicants, who are eligible to receive APTC, may receive CSR. Since you did not meet the requirements to receive APTC in that you did not file your 2016 tax return and reconcile the amount of APTC you received that year, it follows that you were not eligible for CSR either.

Since there is sufficient information in the record to confirm that you did not file your 2016 tax return, the December 15, 2017 eligibility determination notice finding you eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost and ineligible for APTC and CSR, effective January 1, 2018, was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The December 15, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 28, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were properly determined to be ineligible for APTC and CSR, effective January 1, 2018.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
