

Congressional District 1 FACT SHEET

9,300

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

In Congressional District 1:

Data as of January 2025

77,200

$104

29%

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

> Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $365 to $469, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 2 FACT SHEET

6,900

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount

In Congressional District 2:

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

78,000

$115

36%

premiums will increase for residents, from $318 to $433, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 3 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

7,200

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

In Congressional District 3:

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

63,700

$94

23%

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $403 to $497, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 4 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 4:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

67,000

$110

33%

6,500

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

> Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $333 to $443, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 5 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 5:

4,000 Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

113,700

$124

56%

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $220 to $344, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 6 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 6:

5,900

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

163,600

$110

40%

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $276 to $386, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 7 FACT SHEET

8,100

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

In Congressional District 7:

Data as of January 2025

99,600

$100

33%

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

> Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $299 to $399, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 8 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

4,400

97,700

$119

50%

In Congressional District 8:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $237 to $356, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 9 FACT SHEET

In Congressional District 9:

7,100

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Data as of January 2025

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

123,800

$110

41%

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for

Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

premiums will increase for residents, from $265 to $375, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 10 FACT SHEET

In Congressional District 10:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

79,200

7,300

$85

25%

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $350 to $435, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 11 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 11:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

73,700

$112

41%

4,500

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $273 to $385, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 12 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 12:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

24,200

$80

19%

5,100

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

> Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $415 to $495, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 13 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from

access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage

thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American

Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These

Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might

Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed

Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated

in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small

care on hospitals and community health centers.

In Congressional District 13:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

91,500

$118

47%

4,000

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $250 to $368, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

enhanced tax credits have:

otherwise go without coverage.

businesses across the state.

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 14 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from

access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage

thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American

Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These

Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might

Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed

Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated

in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small

care on hospitals and community health centers.

In Congressional District 14:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

121,700

$119

47%

4,200

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $252 to $371, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

enhanced tax credits have:

otherwise go without coverage.

businesses across the state.

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 15 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from

access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage

thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American

Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These

Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might

Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed

Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated

in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small

care on hospitals and community health centers.

In Congressional District 15:

2,500

104,400

$133

68%

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $194 to $327, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

enhanced tax credits have:

otherwise go without coverage.

businesses across the state.

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 16 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 16:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

61,300

$113

37%

4,800

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $309 to $422, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 17 FACT SHEET

7,000

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

In Congressional District 17:

Data as of January 2025

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

42,900

$98

33%

enhanced tax credits. Average monthly amount premiums will increase for

Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from residents, from $293 to $391, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 18 FACT SHEET

6,700

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

In Congressional District 18:

Data as of January 2025

42,500

$107

34%

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $319 to $426, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 19 FACT SHEET

5,600

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Data as of January 2025

37,400

$122

31%

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

In Congressional District 19:

> Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $389 to $511, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 20 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from

access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage

thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American

Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These

Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might

Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed

Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated

in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small

care on hospitals and community health centers.

In Congressional District 20:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

32,800

$123

38%

4,000

00 Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

> Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $324 to $447, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

enhanced tax credits have:

otherwise go without coverage.

businesses across the state.

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 21 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 21:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

44,700

$126

38%

6,400

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $337 to $463, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 22 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from

access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage

thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American

Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These

Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might

Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed

Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated

in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small

care on hospitals and community health centers.

In Congressional District 22:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

37,100 Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

4,000

$131

44%

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $298 to $429, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

enhanced tax credits have:

otherwise go without coverage.

businesses across the state.

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 23 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 23:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

33,000

$130

37%

4,600

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $348 to $478, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 24 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

ver 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from

access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage

thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American

Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These

Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might

Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed

Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated

in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small

care on hospitals and community health centers.

In Congressional District 24:

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

33,700 Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from

4,900

$129

33%

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $389 to $518, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

enhanced tax credits have:

otherwise go without coverage.

businesses across the state.

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 25 FACT SHEET

5,200

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

In Congressional District 25:

Data as of January 2025

41,300

$122

41%

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

 Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

> Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $300 to $422, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.

Congressional District 26 FACT SHEET

Data as of January 2025

In Congressional District 26:

3,100

Number of Qualified Health Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

Number of Essential Plan

enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

40.000

Over 1.6 million Essential Plan enrollees and 140,000 enrollees in Qualified Health Plans currently benefit from access to affordable Marketplace health insurance coverage thanks to enhanced tax credits made available under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)/Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). These enhanced tax credits have:

- Made private coverage more affordable for individuals who might otherwise go without coverage.
- Stabilized finances for working families and individuals employed in elder and child care, retail, manufacturing, and other small businesses across the state.
- Led to historically low uninsured levels, reducing uncompensated care on hospitals and community health centers.

40,000

$134

40%

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for residents, from $333 to $467, in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

The percentage by which premiums will increase for tax credit eligible-consumers in the 2026 plan year if enhanced tax credits expire.

These enhanced tax credits will expire at the end of 2025 if Congress doesn't take action.

An extension of the enhanced tax credits is essential to keeping Marketplace health insurance coverage affordable in New York and preserving these gains for New Yorkers.

6.7 million

Number of individuals enrolled in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

$114

Average monthly amount premiums will increase for New Yorkers, from $300 to $414 in 2026.

IN NEW YORK STATE

1.6 million

Number of Essential Plan enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits.

38%

Percent by which premiums will increase for tax credit-eligible consumers in 2026.

140,000

Number of enrollees benefitting from enhanced tax credits in QHP.