Battered Immigrant Non-Citizen

You may be eligible for health coverage if you are an immigrant who is either the spouse, parent or child of a U.S. Citizen or Lawful Permanent Resident who has caused you to live in fear or danger by being emotionally and/or physically abusive to you.

To qualify, we will need:

1. Proof of your immigration status
2. Proof /evidence of the harm or abuse (if your immigration document isn't based on being battered)
3. Proof of your relationship with the abuser (if your immigration document isn't based on being battered)
4. Proof that you no longer reside with the abuser

Documents that prove your immigration status could include:

- I-797 Notice of Action acknowledging receipt of an I-360 self- petition or with a prima facie determination or granting the petition (no evidence of abuse is necessary if you have this document)
- I-797 Notice of Action acknowledging receipt of an I-130 petition filed by the abuser or approving the petition (evidence of abuse must accompany the immigration document)
- Expired Permanent Resident Card with CR1, CR2, CR6, CR7 code and proof of abuse or I-797 acknowledging receipt of an I-751 petition to waive the joint filing requirement because of domestic violence and remove the condition
- I-766 Employment Authorization Document (card) with code C14 (deferred action) or C31 (approved beneficiary of an I-360 self-petition)
- Order from the Executive Office of Immigration Review
- Evidence that the individual is in front of the immigration court and has filed an application for cancellation of removal under VAWA

Documents that show proof of abuse or harm could include:

- Reports from court, police, judges, medical evidence from a medical professional, clergy, or mental health personnel;
- Affidavits from others or other evidence that could support your claim such as proof
