New York State Health Benefit Exchange Planning

June 15, 2012

New York's Uninsured

- Nearly 2.7 million New Yorkers under age 65, about 16 percent, do not have health insurance coverage
- Most uninsured are workers and their families who earn too much to qualify for public programs, but not enough to buy coverage
- Uninsured people forego necessary care due to costs
- Taxpayers subsidize the cost of care provided to the uninsured by hospitals
- Insured individuals pay for part of the cost of caring for the uninsured through higher premiums

Small Businesses

- There are 400,000 small businesses in New York – the engines of economic growth generating 2/3 of all new jobs
- In the past decade, nearly 800,000 New Yorkers have lost employer-sponsored coverage
- In addition to preventing small businesses from offering coverage to their employees, the high cost of insurance undercuts their capacity to attract and retain quality employees and impedes their ability to grow, create jobs and attract and retain qualified employees

Federal Law

- Under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA), a Health Benefit Exchange will operate in every state beginning on January 1, 2014
- Each state has the option to create its own Exchange; but if it does not, the federal government will operate the Exchange in that state
- State readiness will be evaluated by January 1, 2013

What is an Exchange?

- Organized marketplace
 - Easily compare health plan options
 - Makes available tax credits and cost-sharing subsidies
 - Easily enroll in qualified health plans
- Two programs
 - “Individual Exchange”
 - “Employer Exchange,” which is called the Small Business Health Options Program, or SHOP

ACA Provisions Specific to American Indians/Alaska Natives

- Monthly enrollment in Qualified Health Plans (QHP) through the Exchange
- Cost-sharing exemptions for enrollees in QHPs
 - All covered health care services if income below 300% FPL
 - All health care services regardless of income if received from or with a referral from an I/T/U provider
- Exemption from mandate to purchase minimum health coverage
- Possible Navigators and Essential Community Providers
- Tribal consultation process

Exchange Planning in New York

- Inter-agency Exchange Planning Team

- Led by the Governor's Office, with the Departments of Health and Financial Services
- Coordinates with IT Project Office
- Consults with other State agencies (Civil Service, OMH, OASAS, and Tax and Finance) on specific issues

- Stakeholder Input

- Regularly convene 125 stakeholders representing business, brokers, consumers, labor, local governments, plans, providers as well as state and legislative staff
- Present and discuss preliminary findings from Exchange policy studies

- Information Technology

- Conduct numerous IT design sessions to delineate the business requirements and processes for the Exchange IT system
- Systems Integrator to design and build New York's Exchange IT system

Next Steps - Discussion

- What is the best way to get information on the Exchange to you?
- Stakeholder meetings – who should be invited?
- Can we establish regular meetings/calls to discuss Exchange policy issues and the planning/implementation process?
- How should we move forward with the Tribal Consultation process?
