

Irene Hawksworth
Buffalo, New York
Citizen Action of Western New York

My son will be 18 years old by the time these exchanges take place. Currently, I am on Medicaid and my son, Ja-Quane, will not have insurance at 18 unless he can pay into a reasonable insurance plan that is affordable with quality, he has ortheometritis, which concerns the bone marrow. He continually needs treatment and expensive tests. I worry if the exchanges do not proceed, he will be adversely affected.