Dear [REDACTED],

On April 2, 2014, the Marketplace issued a notice that informed you more information was needed to determine your eligibility for health insurance.

On April 14, 2014, you provided self-attestations of no income and no unemployment benefits. You also appealed the Marketplace's request for additional information.

The Marketplace scheduled a telephone hearing on your appeal request and on May 9, 2014, sent you a notice to tell you that a Hearing Officer would call you at about 1:00 p.m. on May 27, 2014.

Between 1:00 p.m. and 1:40 p.m. on May 27, 2014, the Hearing Officer placed three calls to the telephone number that you gave the Marketplace but was unable to reach you. Since you did not appear for your hearing as scheduled, we are dismissing your appeal.

How does this Dismissal Affect My Eligibility?

On May 19, 2014 you provided the requested information to the Marketplace. On May 22, 2014, the Marketplace redetermined your eligibility based on this new information and found that you are eligible for Medicaid. The Marketplace's May 22, 2014 notice of eligibility redetermination continues in effect.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice. In that writing, explain why you did not appear for your hearing as scheduled.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed. No further action will be taken on it by the Marketplace.
