Dear [REDACTED],

On December 29, 2014, the Marketplace received your modified application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared which stated that you and [REDACTED] were eligible for up to $456.00 per month in advance premium tax credits (APTC), as well as for cost-sharing reductions (CSR).

Also on December 29, 2014, you spoke with the Marketplace's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination.

On December 30, 2014, an eligibility determination notice was issued, stating that you and [REDACTED] together were eligible to receive up to $456.00 per month in APTC. You and [REDACTED] were also eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you selected a silver-level health plan.

On January 9, 2015, the Marketplace issued a Notice of Telephone Hearing to advise you that the hearing you requested was scheduled for January 26, 2015 at 2:00 p.m.

Between 2:00 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. on January 26, 2015, a Hearing Officer called the telephone number that you gave the Marketplace. The Hearing Officer placed three calls to that telephone number but was unable to reach you. Since you did not appear for your hearing as scheduled, we are dismissing your appeal.
