Dear [REDACTED],

On November 7, 2014, the Marketplace issued an eligibility renewal notice in your case. That notice stated that you qualified for an advance premium tax credit of up to $142.99 per month. You also qualified for cost-sharing reductions if you enroll in a silver level health plan.

On January 15, 2015, you requested an appeal regarding the amount of advance premium tax credits you were eligible for.

On January 27, 2015, the Marketplace issued a Notice of Telephone Hearing to advise you that the hearing you requested was scheduled for February 17, 2015 at 11:00 a.m.

At 11:00 a.m. on February 17, 2015, a Hearing Officer attempted to call the phone number that you gave the Marketplace but the call was unable to be completed because the number was out of service. There were no alternative phone numbers listed in your account.

If you provide a valid phone number to the Marketplace within 30 days of this notice, your hearing will be rescheduled and a new Notice of Hearing will be sent to you.

Failure to provide a valid phone number within 30 days will result in a dismissal of your appeal.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY – English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

If you provide a valid phone number within 30 days, this matter will be rescheduled. If you fail to provide a valid phone number, the Marketplace's November 7, 2014 eligibility determination will continue in effect.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice. In that writing, explain why you did not appear for your hearing as scheduled.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed. No further action will be taken on it by the Marketplace.
