Dear [REDACTED],

On January 16, 2015, you spoke with the Marketplace's Account Review Unit and appealed the January 7, 2015 notice that stated you could not be enrolled in your current plan for 2015, and that you needed to select a different plan.

On January 27, 2015, the Marketplace issued a Notice of Telephone Hearing to advise you that the hearing you requested was scheduled for February 17, 2015 at 10:00 a.m.

On January 29, 2015, the Marketplace issued a notice stating that although you were no longer eligible for Medicaid, your coverage under Medicaid would continue until December 31, 2015, "because certain individuals who have been determined eligible for Medicaid remain eligible for benefits for twelve continuous months from the date that they were determined eligible."

On February 17, 2015, you failed to appear by telephone for your scheduled hearing. An impartial Hearing Officer attempted to contact you at the phone number you provided to the Marketplace on three separate occasions between 10:00 a.m. and 10:35 a.m. We were unable able to reach you.

Accordingly, we are dismissing your appeal.

How Does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

The Marketplace's notice issued on January 7, 2014 remains in effect.

Please note, however, the dismissal of your appeal under this notification has no effect on any subsequent Marketplace determinations issued after January 7, 2015.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice. In that writing, explain why you did not appear for your hearing as scheduled.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed. No further action will be taken on it by the Marketplace.
