Dear [REDACTED],

You updated your account for the 2015 tax year on February 14, 2015.

In eligibility determinations sent on February 15, 2015 and February 23, 2015, the Marketplace found that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan through the Marketplace at full cost.

On February 25, 2015, you requested an appeal of those determinations and requested financial assistance.

On March 10, 2015, the Marketplace issued an eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2015.

On March 13, 2015, you called the New York State of Health Appeals Unit to withdraw your appeal. A Hearing Officer from the Marketplace’s Appeals Unit received your call and placed you under oath.

While under oath, you identified yourself and stated that you were satisfied with your eligibility for Medicaid and were no longer interested in pursuing the appeal.

Therefore, you withdrew your appeal on the record. Accordingly, we are dismissing your appeal, pursuant to 45 CFR § 155.530(a)(1).

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

Your eligibility for Medicaid will not be affected by this withdrawal.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and the Marketplace will take no further action on your appeal.
