Dear [REDACTED],

On February 16, 2015, the Marketplace issued a notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through the Marketplace, effective March 1, 2015.

On March 2, 2015, you requested an appeal regarding the February 16, 2015 eligibility determination.

On March 27, 2015, your spouse called New York State of Health's Appeals Unit to withdraw your appeal. A Hearing Officer from the Marketplace's Appeals Unit received the call and placed your spouse under oath.

While under oath, your spouse identified himself and stated that you were no longer interested in pursuing your appeal, because your application had been changed to one requesting financial assistance, and you had been found eligible for advance premium tax credits.

Therefore, you withdrew your appeal on the record. Accordingly, we are dismissing your appeal, pursuant to 45 CFR § 155.530(a)(1).

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

Your eligibility for advance premium tax credits will not be affected by the withdrawal of your appeal. The withdrawal of your appeal will also not affect any determination issued after the February 16, 2015 notice.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and the Marketplace will take no further action on your appeal.
