Dear [REDACTED],

On March 10, 2015, the Marketplace prepared a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you are eligible for up to $172.00 of advance premium tax credits per month.

On that same day you spoke to the Marketplace Account Review Unit and appealed the amount of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

On March 11, 2015, the Marketplace issued an eligibility determination notice consistent with the March 10, 2015, preliminary eligibility determination.

On March 18, 2015, the Marketplace issued a Notice of Telephone Hearing scheduling your hearing for April 13, 2015, at 2:00 pm.

On April 13, 2015, you failed to appear by telephone for your scheduled hearing. An impartial hearing officer attempted to contact you at the phone number you provided on three separate occasions between 2:00 pm and 2:30 pm. An automated message stated that the telephone number dialed was incorrect. We could not reach you.

Accordingly, we are dismissing your case.

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

The Marketplace's March 11, 2015, eligibility determination continues in effect.

However, this dismissal will not affect eligibility determinations made after March 11, 2015.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

Under some circumstances, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice. In that writing you also must state a good reason for us to do this.

If you ask us in writing to vacate this dismissal, the Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request and send you a decision on that request.

If we deny your request to vacate this dismissal, we will tell you that in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed. No further action will be taken on it by the Marketplace.

Appeal Identification Number

When communicating with the Marketplace about this appeal, please reference Appeal Identification Number at the top of this notice.
