Dear [REDACTED],

On March 13, 2015, you contacted the Marketplace to request an appeal of a determination that found that you were not eligible to enroll in a Medicaid Managed Care Plan.

On April 8, 2015, you called New York State of Health's Appeals Unit to withdraw your appeal. A Hearing Officer from the Marketplace's Appeals Unit received the call and placed you under oath.

While under oath, you identified yourself and stated that you were no longer interested in pursuing your appeal, because you had been assured that the start date for your enrollment in United Healthcare Community Plan, a Medicaid managed care plan, had been changed to be effective April 1, 2015, which is what you needed.

You therefore withdrew your appeal on the record. Accordingly, we are dismissing your appeal, pursuant to 45 CFR § 155.530(a)(1).

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

Since the time you filed your appeal, your enrollment in United Healthcare Community Plan was changed to be effective April 1, 2015, and this is not affected by the withdrawal of your appeal.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and the Marketplace will take no further action on your appeal.
