Dear [REDACTED],

On April 9, 2015, you called the Marketplace's Account Review Unit and appealed on the denial of a special enrollment period.

On April 10, 2015, the Marketplace issued an eligibility determination notice. That notice stated that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, however you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period because the requirements to qualify for a special enrollment period were not met.

On April 20, 2015, the Marketplace issued a Notice of Telephone Hearing to advise you that the hearing you requested was scheduled for May 11, 2015 at 11:00 a.m.

Between 11:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. on May 11, 2015, a Hearing Officer called the telephone number that you gave the Marketplace. The Hearing Officer placed three calls to that telephone number but was unable to reach you. Since you did not appear for your hearing as scheduled, we are dismissing your appeal.

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

The April 10, 2015 eligibility determination remains in effect.

You do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed. No further action will be taken on it by the Marketplace.
