[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

On August 20, 2015, the Marketplace received your updated application for financial assistance.

On August 21, 2015, the Marketplace issued a notice which stated that more information was needed in order to make a determination on your eligibility. You were requested to provide additional income information because the information you provided did not match the information obtained from State and Federal data sources. You were asked to submit additional income documentation by September 5, 2015.

On September 9, 2015, the Marketplace issued an eligibility determination based on updated information it received on Sept. 8. The determination found you eligible to receive advance premium tax credits and cost sharing reductions in the amount of $173.00 per month effective Oct. 1, 2015.

On September 8, 2015, you requested a telephone hearing in order to dispute the level of financial assistance you were receiving. You stated that you felt you should be found eligible for Medicaid based upon your level of income currently.

On October 28, 2015, a notice of telephone hearing was issued for a telephone hearing on November 20, 2015 at 1:00 pm. The hearing notice stated that you would be called at the number you provided the Marketplace.

On November 20, 2015, between 1:00 pm and 1:30 pm a Hearing Officer from the NY State of Health Appeals Unit, placed three calls to the telephone number that you have provided to the Marketplace, but was unable to reach you.

Since you did not appear for your hearing as scheduled, we are dismissing your appeal.
