NOTICE OF DISMISSAL – TELEPHONE WITHDRAWAL

Notice Date: January 19, 2016

NY State of Health Number: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000005032

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

On October 3, 2015, the Marketplace issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were no longer eligible to enroll in health insurance through the Marketplace because you did not provide documentation proving your citizenship status by the required date. Your eligibility ended October 31, 2015. You appealed this determination insofar as you were seeking reinstatement of your coverage.

On January 15, 2016, a Hearing Officer from the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health called you and placed you under oath.

While under oath, you identified yourself and stated that you were no longer interested in pursuing your appeal because (1) you did not incur any out-of-pocket medical expenses during the period you were without coverage, which was between November 1, 2015 and December 31, 2015, so reinstatement of your coverage would be of no practical value to you, and (2) you have since enrolled in a qualified health plan through the Marketplace with coverage beginning January 1, 2016.

You therefore withdrew your appeal on the record. Accordingly, we are dismissing your appeal, pursuant to Code of Federal Regulation (CFR) 45 CFR § 155.530(a)(1).

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate (cancel) this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice.

The Marketplace's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, the Marketplace will tell you in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and the Marketplace will take no further action on your appeal.
