Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did the Marketplace properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid through the Marketplace?

Procedural History

On August 14, 2015, the Marketplace issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were conditionally eligible for Medicaid, effective August 1, 2015. You were further requested to provide documentation confirming that your Medicare Part A or Part B coverage was terminated before September 27, 2015.

On September 30, 2015, the Marketplace issued a notice of eligibility redetermination stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because you were already enrolled in or eligible for a public insurance program such as Medicare.

On October 1, 2015, the Marketplace issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Medicaid Fee-For-Service coverage would be discontinued as of October 31, 2015.

October 27, 2015, the Marketplace issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid because you were already enrolled in or eligible for a public insurance program such as Medicare.

On October 27, 2015, you spoke with the Marketplace's Account Review Unit and appealed that determination insofar as you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage through the Marketplace.

On January 8, 2016, you were scheduled for a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the Marketplace's Appeals Unit. At that time, the Hearing Officer contacted you for the hearing you requested however, due to a personal matter, you requested an adjournment.

On January 14, 2015, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the Marketplace's Appeals Unit. At that time, you were sworn in and waived your right to formal notice to proceed with the adjourned hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and left open for up to 15 days to provide you an opportunity to submit supporting evidence. You submitted various medical records which were uploaded to your Marketplace account on January 28, 2016.

The record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are the only person in your household. You further testified that you have one son who occasionally stays with you.
- You testified that you do not expect to file taxes for the 2015 or 2016 tax years because your only source of income is Social Security benefits.
- 3) You testified that your income for the 2015 tax year was $1,100.00 per month, which is the amount you received in Social Security benefits before any deductions.
- 4) You testified that you have been enrolled in Medicare Part A, since approximately 1990. You further testified that your Medicare Part B coverage began effective July 1, 2015.
- 5) You testified that your doctor does not accept Medicare Parts A or B.
- 6) According to your Marketplace account, you currently reside in New York County.
- 7) The medical bills you submitted as evidence do not address your eligibility through the Marketplace.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

There are two primary places to apply for Medicaid in New York State, the New York State of Health Marketplace and your Local Department of Social Services (LDSS) or, if you live in one of New York City's five boroughs, the New York City Human Resources Administration (HRA). Generally, adults aged 19 to 64 apply for Medicaid through the Marketplace, and adults over the age of 65 who are not parents or caretaker relatives apply for Medicaid through their LDSS or the HRA.

An individual is eligible for enrollment in Medicaid through the Marketplace (called MAGI-based Medicaid) when he or she meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard (45 CFR § 155.305(c); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

The first step in identifying whether an applicant is eligible for MAGI-based Medicaid through the Marketplace is to determine if he or she meets certain nonfinancial criteria. In general, to qualify for MAGI-based Medicaid through the Marketplace, you must either be one of the following:

- An adult aged 19-64 who is not eligible for Medicare Part A or Part B
- A pregnant woman or infant
- A child aged 1-18
- A parent or caretaker relative

If you fall into one of these categories, the Marketplace must determine your eligibility for Medicaid using MAGI rules (45 CFR § 155.305(c); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

If you do not fall into one of these categories you may be eligible for non-MAGI-based Medicaid coverage through your LDSS or the HRA (N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether you were properly determined ineligible for Medicaid coverage.

Medicaid through the Marketplace (called MAGI-based Medicaid) is available to individuals who are between the ages of 19 and 64, who are not eligible for Medicare Parts A or B; pregnant women or infants; children between the ages of 1 and 18; and parent or caretaker relatives.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

According to your testimony and the information in your Marketplace application, you are single with no dependents and, therefore, not a parent or a caretaker relative of a dependent child.

You further testified that you were enrolled in Medicare Part A, since approximately 1990; therefore you did not meet the nonfinancial criteria to qualify for MAGI-based Medicaid through the Marketplace.

Since the Marketplace determined that you were not eligible to enroll in health insurance through NY State of Health because you were already enrolled in Medicare, the October 22, 2015 eligibility determination was correct and is AFFIRMED.

The Marketplace does not have the authority to decide if you qualify for non-MAGI-based Medicaid. If you feel you may be eligible for Medicaid on a non-MAGI basis, you may apply to the New York City Human Resources Administration for consideration. The New York City Human Resources Administration would then determine your eligibility for Medicaid.

For more information about non-MAGI eligibility requirements for Medicaid, you can contact the New York City Human Resources Administration. A listing of offices can be found at http://www.nyc.gov/html/hra/html/home/home.shtm.
