Decision

Decision Date: July 25, 2016

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000006510

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that the application of advance premium tax credits and cost-sharing reductions to your qualified health plan, was effective March 1, 2016?

Procedural History

On October 23, 2015, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by December 15, 2015 or you might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2015.

On December 21, 2015, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were found newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost effective January 1, 2016. This was because you did not respond to the renewal notice and did not complete your renewal within the required timeframe. As a result you no longer qualified to receive financial assistance.

On December 23, 2015 an enrollment confirmation was issued stating that you were enrolled in your silver level qualified health plan without financial assistance, effective January 1, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 26, 2016, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. That day a preliminary eligibility redetermination was made stating that you were eligible to receive up to $226.00 per month in advance payment of the premium tax credit (APTC) and, if you selected a silver-level qualified health plan, for cost-sharing reductions (CSR). This eligibility was effective March 1, 2016.

That same day you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination insofar as it began your financial assistance eligibility on March 1, 2016, and not January 1, 2016.

On January 27, 2016 NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the January 26, 2016 application for health insurance, stating that you were newly eligible to receive up to $226.00 per month in APTC and, if you selected a silver-level qualified health plan, for CSR. This eligibility was effective March 1, 2016.

Also on January 27, 2016, NYSOH issued a letter confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with a monthly premium responsibility of $216.25 per month, after your APTC of $226.00 was applied, effective March 1, 2016.

On July 13, 2016, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

- 1) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 2) Your NYSOH account indicates that you receive notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 3) You testified that you could not remember if you received any notices from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account to ensure that your coverage would not be interrupted and that your financial assistance would continue. You testified that you did not have your paperwork organized during that time period and were focusing on your upcoming move.
- 4) No notices sent to you at the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable, except two notices of hearing.

- 5) You testified that you did not know you needed to renew your application until you went to your Broker who assisted you with submitting your application for 2016 coverage.
- 6) The record shows, and your testimony supports your Broker's ID name for the NYSOH account is [REDACTED]
- 7) You testified that you updated the information in your NYSOH account on January 26, 2016. That day you also enrolled into a qualified health plan.
- 8) You testified that you moved on April 5, 2016 from New York to Brooklyn.
- 9) On April 28, 2016, you were found eligible for a special enrollment period effective June 1, 2016. You were not aware of this at the time of the hearing.
- 10) The record shows you contacted NYSOH on April 27, 2016 and updated your account with your new address. However, you did not select a new health plan at that time.
- 11) You testified at the time of your hearing that you are not satisfied with your coverage under your qualified health plan due to the high deductible.
- 12) You testified that your projected household income for 2016 may have gone down to approximately $24,000.00 annually.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Annual Eligibility Redetermination

Generally, NYSOH must conduct annual eligibility redeterminations for qualified individuals who are seeking financial assistance through insurance affordability programs for the upcoming year, such as tax credits and cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, or Child Health Plus. In such cases, NYSOH is required to request that the qualified individual provide updated income and family size information for use in an eligibility redetermination for the upcoming year (see 45 CFR § 155.335(a) and (b)).

NYSOH must send an annual renewal notice that contains the information by which NYSOH will use to redetermine a qualified individual's projected eligibility for that year (45 CFR § 155.335(c)(3)). If a qualified individual does not respond to the notice after a 30-day period, NYSOH must redetermine that individual's eligibility using the information provided in the annual renewal notice (45 CFR § 155.335(g), (h)). NYSOH must ensure this redetermination is effective on the first day of the coverage year or in accordance with the rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) regarding effective dates, whichever is later (45 CFR § 155.335(i)). The rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) are not pertinent here.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Redetermination During a Benefit Year

When an eligibility redetermination results in a change in the amount of APTC for a part of the benefit year, NYSOH must recalculate the amount of APTC in such a manner as to account for any advance payments already made (or not made) on behalf of the tax filer, such that the recalculated advance payment amount is projected to result in total advance payments for the benefit year that correspond to the tax filer's total projected premium tax credit for the overall benefit year (45 CFR § 155.330(g)).

Any change resulting from redeterminations during a benefit year should be made effective the first day of the month following the date of the notice of redetermination, except that redeterminations resulting from changes made after a date specified by the state, which can be no earlier than the 15th of the month, may not be made effective until the first day of the month after the month following the date of the notice of redetermination. (45 CFR § 155.330(f)(1) and (2)). New York has specified that changes made after the 15th of a given month will take effect the month after the following month.

End of Tax Year Reconciliation

At the end of a tax year, a person who elects to take APTC to help pay for the cost of an insurance premium must file a tax return to reconcile any differences between the amount of income the person reported to NYSOH and their actual gross income for that year. A person who received less tax credit than her maximum entitlement, based on gross income, may receive an income tax refund, or owe less in taxes. A person who received more tax credit than his maximum entitlement, based on gross income, will owe the excess as an additional income tax liability (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as well as your eligibility for advance premium tax credits was effective March 1, 2016.

NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for health insurance and financial assistance to help pay for that health insurance annually. NYSOH must issue a renewal notice that contains the individual's projected eligibility. If an individual does not respond to this notice, NYSOH must issue an eligibility determination for the upcoming coverage year based on the information contained in the renewal notice.

On October 23, 2015, NYSOH issued an annual renewal notice in your case. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether or not you would qualify for financial help with paying for your health coverage. You were asked to update the information in your account by December 15, 2015 or the financial help you were receiving might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your eligibility for financial assistance and your enrollment in a qualified health plan was terminated effective December 31, 2015.

During your telephone hearing, you testified that you could not remember if you received any notices from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account to ensure that your coverage would not be interrupted and that your financial assistance would continue. You testified that you did not have your paperwork organized during that time period and were focusing on your upcoming move.

You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable except two notices of hearing. You testified that you did not move from your New York address to your Brooklyn address until April 5, 2016.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your annual renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated in order to ensure your enrollment in your health plan and eligibility for financial assistance would continue.

You testified that you did not know you needed to renew your application until you went to your Broker who assisted you with submitting your application for 2016 coverage. Your Broker's ID name for the NYSOH account is [REDACTED]

You testified that you updated the information in your NYSOH account on January 26, 2016 with your Broker. That day you also enrolled into a qualified health plan.

When an individual changes information in their application on or before the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from the change effective the first day of the following month. Additionally, the date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected from the first day to an including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. Since your application was not completed and updated until January 26, 2016, your qualified health plan and eligibility for advance premium tax credit and cost-sharing reductions properly started the first day of the next following month which is March 1, 2016.

Therefore, NYSOH's January 27, 2016 eligibility determination and enrollment confirmation notices are AFFIRMED because they properly began your enrollment in your qualified health plan as well as your advance premium tax credits on March 1, 2016.
