Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan effective April 1, 2016?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid, as of February 17, 2016?

Procedural History

On February 17, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective April 1, 2016.

Also on February 17, 2016, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that preliminary eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible for Medicaid.

On February 18, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination based on the February 17, 2016 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective April 1, 2016. It further stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your income was over the allowable limit for that program.

On July 22, 2016, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and left open for 15 days to allow you time to submit paystubs showing your gross income for the months of February and June 2016. On July 27, 2016 NYSOH received a fax containing copies of paystubs that only showed your net income. An office assistant from the Appeals Unit called you at the direction of a Hearing Officer and asked you to submit copies of paystubs showing your gross income. The Hearing Officer agreed to let the record open for an additional 15 days in order for you to do so. On August 9, 2016 the Appeals Unit received a fax containing the requested documentation of your gross pay for the months of February and June 2016. The record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2016 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) The application that was submitted on February 17, 2016, which requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $17,800.00. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 3) You testified that your monthly income varies because your work schedule is dependent on when your employer is working.
- 4) You provided documentation showing that in the month of February you received gross wages in the amount $2,300.00. You provided documentation that in June 2016 you also received gross wages in the amount of $2,300.00.
- 5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2016 tax return.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2015 FPL, which is $11,770.00 for a one-person household (80 Fed. Reg. 3236, 3237).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective April 1, 2016.

The application that was submitted on February 17, 2016 listed an annual household income of $17,800.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2016 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,770.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $17,800.00 is 151.23% of the 2015 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since $17,800.00 is 149.83% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified that your monthly income varies because your work schedule is dependent on when your employer is working. You provided documentation showing that in the month of February you received gross wages in the amount $2,300.00.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. Since the documentation you provided shows that you earned $2,300.00 in February 2016 you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the February 18, 2016 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for the Essential Plan, it was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 18, 2016 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 15, 2016

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You remain eligible for the Essential Plan.
