Decision

Decision Date: October 20, 2016

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000008323

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NY State of Health as of March 26, 2016, because you were not lawfully present in the United States?

Procedural History

On December 11, 2015, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your application of the same day, stating that you were conditionally eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2016. The notice further stated that you needed to submit documentation of your immigration status by March 10, 2016 in order to confirm your eligibility.

Also on December 11, 2015, documentation was uploaded to your NYSOH account.

On December 18, 2015, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because verification documents showed that you were not lawfully present.

On March 25, 2016, you updated your account, and documentation was again uploaded to your account.

That same day, NYSOH issued a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible to purchase health care coverage through NYSOH.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on March 25, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the preliminary eligibility determination, insofar as it stated that you were not eligible to enroll in health insurance through NYSOH.

On March 26, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because verification documents showed that you were not lawfully present.

On September 23, 2016, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record reflects that you expect to file your 2016 taxes with a status of single.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) Your application states you are an immigrant non-citizen.
- 4) You testified that you have a work permit, and that you are in the United States through a program for students.
- 5) You uploaded a copy of your Employment Authorization card on December 11, 2015 and March 25, 2016 with the status of C-33, which was verified on December 17, 2015. (See Document [REDACTED])
- 6) The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals.
- 7) The March 26, 2016 eligibility redetermination notice found that the verification documentation you submitted to NYSOH showed you were not lawfully present, and therefore were not eligible for advance premium tax credits, cost sharing reductions, Medicaid, the Essential Plan, Child Health Plus, or to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost.
- 8) The application that was submitted on March 25, 2016, which requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $23,000.00, consisting of income you earn from your employment only. You testified that this amount was correct at the time, and is still correct.

9) You testified that you live on your own and support yourself, and that you cannot afford to buy health insurance at regular cost.

10) Your application states that you live in Suffolk County.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the federal poverty level (FPL) for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. Generally, no person except a United States citizen, naturalized citizen, qualified alien, or person permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL) is eligible for full Medicaid benefits in New York State (NY Social Services Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2).

Citizenship and Immigration Status

To enroll through NYSOH, an applicant must be a citizen or national of the United States, or a non-citizen lawfully present in the United States and reasonably expecting to become a citizen or remain a lawfully present noncitizen for the entire period for which enrollment is being sought (45 CFR § 155.305(a)(1)).

NYSOH must verify or obtain information in order to determine that an applicant is eligible to enroll, including the certification of citizenship, status as a national, or lawful presence (45 CFR § 155.315(a), (c)).

Under federal law, certain individuals who enter the United States on or after August 22, 1996, are not eligible for any Federal means-tested public benefit, including federal Medicaid (8 USC § 1613(a)).

However, the New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

PRUCOL

The term “PRUCOL alien” refers to an alien who is permanently residing in the United States with the “knowledge and permission or acquiescence” of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the U.S. the agency does not contemplate enforcing. An alien is considered as one whose departure the federal immigration agency does not contemplate enforcing if it is the agency’s policy or practice not to enforce the departure of aliens in a particular category, and the alien falls within that category; or, based on all the facts and circumstances of the case, it appears that the federal immigration agency is permitting the alien to reside in the United States indefinitely. This category includes (i) aliens granted deferred action status, and (l) any other alien living in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)(1)(i)(m)(ii)).

Lawful Presence

An individual with deferred action under the Department of Homeland Security’s deferred action for childhood arrivals process shall not be considered to be lawfully present for the purposes of obtaining coverage through NYSOH (45 CFR § 152.2(8); Center for Medicaid and CHIP Services Memorandum SHO#12-002 “Re: Individuals with Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals,” issued August 28 2012).

Qualified Immigrants

In New York State, qualified immigrants who were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 19, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>). This category of qualified immigrants includes individuals lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States who are still in their first five years of permanent residency (18 NYCRR § 349.3, 8 USC § 1613).

Legal Analysis

The only issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for financial assistance as of March 26, 2016 because you were not lawfully present.

You provided a copy of your Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33, which was verified on January 11, 2016 (see Document [REDACTED]).

When you updated your application on March 25, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because the documentation you provided showed that you were not lawfully present.

Your employment authorization documentation states you are an immigrant non-citizen with a C-33 status. The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33 category are persons considered not "lawfully present" for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

In addition, although individuals who have been determined to be qualified aliens and were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016, this is not the case for persons who received Deferred Action status.

One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. Under federal law, certain individuals who enter the United States on or after August 22, 1996, are not eligible for any Federal means-tested public benefit, including federal Medicaid.

However, the New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of “PRUCOL alien.” This category includes aliens granted deferred action status, and any other alien living in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure such agency does not contemplate enforcing. Such a finding would mean that New York Court of Appeals continues to recognize their eligibility for participation in the Medicaid program through the state, as long as they meet the other requirements for the program.

Your application of March 25 2016 listed an annual household income of $23,000.00, and the March 26, 2016 eligibility determination was based on that amount. In determining an individual’s eligibility for Medicaid, the determination is based on the FPL for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility. On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household. An income of $23,000.00 is 193.60% of the applicable FPL. As the income limit for Medicaid is 138% of the FPL, you were not eligible for Medicaid at the time of your March 25, 2016 application.

Since your status as an immigrant non-citizen with a C-33 status makes you ineligible for any federally funded programs, and since your income as of March 1, 2016 was over the Medicaid income limit, the March 26, 2016 eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage because you were not lawfully present was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The March 26, 2016 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 20, 2016

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH, based on your income and immigration status.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to U.S. Department of Health and Human Services or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.
