Decision

Decision Date: October 14, 2016

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000008459

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your children were disenrolled from their Child Health Plus plan effective February 29, 2016 and were not re-enrolled until May 1, 2016, resulting in a gap in coverage during the months of March, and April, 2016?

Procedural History

On January 17, 2015 NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your January 16, 2015 application, stating that your children were eligible for Child Health Plus effective March 1, 2015. Your child children were subsequently enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan.

On January 12, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your children's health insurance for 2016. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether your children would qualify for financial help paying for their health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by February 15, 2016, or your children might lose the financial assistance they were currently receiving.

No updates were made to your account by February 15, 2016.

On February 17, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that your children were not eligible for Medicaid, Child Health Plus, or to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance. Your children also could not enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost. This was because you had not responded to the renewal notice and had not completed your children's renewal within the required time frame. Your children's eligibility ended February 29, 2016.

On March 29, 2016, NYSOH received your children's updated application for health insurance.

On March 30, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your March 29, 2016, application, stating that your children were eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $9.00 monthly premium each, effective May 1, 2016.

That same day, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on March 29, 2016, stating that your children were enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan and that coverage would start on May 1, 2016.

That same day you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your children's Child Health Plus plan insofar as it did not begin March 1, 2016.

On October 7, 2016, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and the record reflects, that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by electronic mail.
- 2) You testified you did not receive any electronic notice stating you needed to go into your account to update your information, or renew your children's coverage for 2016.
- 3) You testified that you realized you needed to update your children's application for health insurance when you received a bill from their doctor.
- 4) You testified you incurred medical costs for both children from their dermatologists in the amount of approximately $440.00 each. As well as a bill for $234.00, and $506.00 during the months of March, and April 2016.

- 5) The record reflects that on March 29, 2016, NYSOH received your children's updated application for health insurance.
- 6) You testified that you are seeking that your children be enrolled in their Child Health Plus plan as of March 1, 2016.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Child Health Plus

The "period of eligibility" for Child Health Plus is "that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date," unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid, or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

"A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage," including for periodic renewals (42 CFR § 457.340(f); 42 CFR §457.343).

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. The State of New York will furnish benefits by the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

The State of New York has elected to provide presumptive eligibility to children if they appear eligible for coverage but are missing one or more documents needed to verify eligibility. Children may be enrolled presumptively for two months while the missing documentation is collected (see e.g. 42 CFR § 457.355; SPA NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

In addition, where an application for recertification of Child Health Plus coverage contains insufficient information for a final determination of eligibility for continued coverage for the next policy period, a child or children must be presumed eligible for a period of no greater than two months after the previous eligibility period ends or the date upon which a final determination of eligibility is made based on the submission of additional data. Only in the event that such additional information is not submitted within two months of NYSOH's request, shall the child or children be disenrolled from Child Health Plus (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(j)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your children were disenrolled from their Child Health Plus plan effective February 29, 2016 and were not re-enrolled until May 1, 2016, resulting in a gap in coverage during the months of March and April, 2016.

Your children were originally found eligible for Child Health Plus and enrolled effective March 1, 2015.

Generally, NYSOH must redetermine a qualified child's eligibility for Child Health Plus once every twelve months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's January 12, 2016 renewal notice stated that there was not enough information to determine whether your children were eligible to continue their financial assistance for health insurance, and that you needed to supply additional information by February 15, 2016, or their financial assistance might end.

You testified you receive your notices via electronic communication. You testified that you did not receive any notice in your e-mail, stating you would need to go into your account to update your information. You confirmed your e-mail address during your hearing.

The record indicates that your children were then disenrolled from their Child Health Plus plan because you did not respond to the renewal notice. Your children's eligibility and enrollment subsequently ended on February 29, 2016.

However, under the presumptive eligibility rule, your children should have been entitled to two months of presumptive eligibility upon the need to recertify for the next policy period beginning March 1, 2016. This is because when a child or children are being automatically recertified for Child Health Plus, they are presumed eligible for up to two months from the date that the previous period of eligibility ends if there is insufficient information for a redetermination. NYSOH provides this two month period of presumptive eligibility to children so as to avoid a gap in coverage and to permit the parents or caregiver relatives a two month window within which to provide sufficient documentation.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the end date of the previous 12 month policy period of your children's eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus February 29, 2016, your children should have been determined presumptively eligible from March 1, 2016 through April 30, 2016, so as to avoid a gap in their Child Health Plus coverage for the upcoming policy period and allow you to submit sufficient information to have their eligibility determined.

Therefore, the February 17, 2016 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that your children were presumptively eligible to remain in Child Health Plus for two months pending your completion of their recertification.

The March 30, 2016, enrollment confirmation notice is MODIFIED to state that your children's enrollment in their Child Health Plus plan was effective as of March 1, 2016.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your children in their Child Health Plus for the months of March, and April, 2016.
