Decision

Decision Date: November 21, 2016

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000008961

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was your enrollment in your qualified health plan properly cancelled effective January 1, 2016, because of non-payment of premiums?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you did not qualify for a special enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 19, 2015, New York State of Health (NYSOH) issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective as of January 1, 2016.

Also on December 19, 2015, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming that as of December 18, 2015 you were enrolled in Fidelis Care Silver ST INN Pediatric Dental Dep25 (Fidelis Care) with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2016.

On February 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that your insurance with Fidelis Care was cancelled effective January 1, 2016, because a premium payment had not been received by Fidelis Care. The notice directed you to contact your plan directly if you believe that you made your premium payment.

On April 18, 2016, your spouse spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your eligibility to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On April 19, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2016.

On October 27, 2016, your spouse had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account, you were enrolled in a Fidelis Care health plan on December 18, 2015 with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2016.
- 2) Your spouse testified that they contacted Fidelis Care on or around January 27, 2016, to pay for your December 2015 and January 2016 health insurance premiums.
- 3) Your spouse testified it was first discovered that your Fidelis Care coverage had been cancelled when picking up prescriptions in February 2016.
- 4) Your spouse testified that they contacted Fidelis Care regarding the cancellation of your coverage. A representative notified your spouse that there were insufficient funds in the account that was provided to Fidelis Care.
- 5) Your spouse testified that Fidelis Care attempted to process payment for the December 2015 and January 2016 health insurance premiums approximately ten days after they were contacted.
- 6) On February 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that your Fidelis Care coverage was cancelled effective January 1, 2016, because your premium payment was not received within the required timeframe.
- 7) Your spouse testified that Fidelis Care directed you to contact NYSOH to have your health coverage reinstated.
- 8) Your spouse testified that you did not have any outstanding medical bills because of the lapse in health insurance coverage.

- 9) Your spouse testified that you have [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and are in need of a [REDACTED]

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure by the Exchange to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a request to vacate dismissal made by the NY State of Health Appeals Unit (45 CFR § 155.505).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

The NY State of Health (NYSOH) must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR §155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2016, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2015, and extended through January 31, 2016 (45 CFR §155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, the NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a QHP, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent involuntarily loses certain health insurance coverage:
  - (a) Health insurance considered to be minimum essential coverage;
  - (b) Enrolled in any non-calendar year health insurance policy, even if they have the option to renew the expiring non-calendar year individual health insurance policy; or
  - (c) Pregnancy-related coverage; or

(d) Medically needy coverage.

- (2) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care; or
- (3) The qualified individual or his or her dependent, who was not previously a citizen, national, or lawfully present individual gains such status; or
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of the Exchange or HHS, or its instrumentalities as evaluated and determined by the Exchange; or a non-Exchange entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities; or
- (5) The enrollee or dependent adequately demonstrates to the Exchange that the QHP in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee; or
- (6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or has a change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions; or
- (7) The qualified individual, enrollee, or their dependent, gains access to new QHPs as a result of a permanent move; or
- (8) The qualified individual is an Indian, as defined by section 4 of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, and may enroll in a QHP or change from one QHP to another one time per month; or
- (9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or their dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Special Enrollment Period – Voluntary Termination

A special enrollment period is granted when including a qualified individual or his or her dependent loses certain health insurance coverage.

However, a loss of coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

"voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128" (45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether your QHP was properly terminated effective January 1, 2016 because of non-payment of premiums.

On February 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that your coverage in your QHP is terminated effective January 1, 2016 because a health insurance premium payment had not been received by Fidelis Care.

Your spouse testified that they contacted Fidelis Care on or around January 27, 2016, to pay for your December 2015 and January 2016 health insurance premiums. When contacting Fidelis Care regarding the cancellation of your coverage, a representative notified your spouse that there were insufficient funds in the account that was provided to Fidelis Care. However, Fidelis Care attempted to process payment for the December 2015 and January 2016 health insurance premiums approximately ten days after they were provided payment.

The New York State of Health Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a determination of eligibility for an enrollment period (4) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (5) a failure by the Exchange to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (6) a denial of a request to vacate dismissal made by the New York State of Health Appeals Unit.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the February 18, 2016, cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

However, Fidelis Care may be able to help you with your request for coverage. If you have not already been assisted with your current coverage issue, please contact Fidelis Care at 1-888-343-3547.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly denied you a special enrollment period.

The NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2015 until January 31, 2016. The record reflects that you enrolled in a Fidelis Care health plan on December 18, 2015, with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2016.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered through NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

The record reflects that on February 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that your insurance with Fidelis Care was cancelled effective January 1, 2016, because a premium payment had not been received by Fidelis Care.

Generally, the loss of health insurance coverage is considered a triggering event. Here, your enrollment was terminated effective January 1, 2016, because the health plan did not receive the health insurance premiums in a timely manner. NYSOH considers the failure to pay premiums a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage; therefore, you would not be entitled to a special enrollment period in which to enroll in new coverage on this basis.

The credible evidence of record indicates that no other triggering events has occurred that would qualify you and your spouse for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, the April 19, 2016 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the February 18, 2016 cancellation notice is DISMISSED.

The April 19, 2016 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: November 21, 2016

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in a qualified health plan at this time.
