Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly end your children’s Child Health Plus coverage effective June 30, 2016?

Procedural History

[REDACTED]

On May 3, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your children’s health insurance. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether your children would qualify for financial help paying for their health coverage, and that you needed to update your account between May 16, 2016 and June 15, 2016 or your children might lose the financial assistance they were currently receiving.

No updates were made to your account by June 15, 2016.

[REDACTED]

On June 16, 2016, you submitted a financial assistance application through NYSOH. NYSOH rendered a preliminary eligibility determination that your children qualified to enroll in a Child Health Plus plan for $60.00 per month.

Also on June 16, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH’s Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your children’s Child Health Plus coverage ending June 30, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on June 16, 2016, stating that your children were enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with a plan enrollment start date of August 1, 2016.

Also on June 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your children's Child Health Plus plan would terminate effective June 30, 2016.

On December 8, 2016, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your children, ages 6 and 8, were enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan in 2015 under ██████████.
- 2) You testified and both NYSOH accounts reflect, that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 3) According to ██████████, NYSOH received your children's updated application for health insurance on June 16, 2016.
- 4) According to ██████████, your children's Child Health Plus coverage was discontinued effective June 30, 2016.
- 5) According to ██████████, your children were re-enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan on June 16, 2016, with a plan enrollment start date of August 1, 2016.
- 6) You testified that you are seeking to backdate your children's coverage in order to be reimbursed for medical bills for the month of July 2016.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

To be eligible for Child Health Plus, the child:

- Must be under 19 years of age;
- Must be a New York State Resident;
- Must not have other health insurance coverage; and
- Must not be eligible for, or enrolled in, Medicaid

(NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)-(e)).

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid, or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage,” including for periodic renewals (42 CFR § 457.340(f); 42 CFR §457.343).

In general, a child eligible for Child Health Plus must recertify their eligibility for enrollment through NYSOH once every twelve months (42 CFR § 457.343; 42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(f)(ii)).42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH is required to provide proper written notice to an applicant of any decision effecting an enrollee’s Child Health Plus eligibility (42 CFR § 457.340(e)). When Child Health Plus coverage is denied, suspended or terminated NYSOH must provide sufficient notice to enable the child's parent or caretaker relative to take appropriate actions in order to allow Child Health Plus coverage to continue without interruption (42 CFR § 457.340(e)(1)(D); 42 CFR § 457.1130(a)(3)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your children were enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with an enrollment start date of August 1, 2016.

Generally, NYSOH must redetermine a qualified child's eligibility for Child Health Plus once every twelve months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's May 3, 2016 renewal notice stated that NYSOH did not have enough information from state and federal data sources to determine whether or not your children qualified for financial help paying for their coverage. The notice asked that you to update the information in your account by June 15, 2016 or the financial assistance your children were receiving may end.

No updates were made to your NYSOH account prior to June 15, 2016.

On June 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your children's coverage in their Child Health Plus plan would end effective June 30, 2016.

When NYSOH denies, terminates, or suspends a child's Child Health Plus coverage, they are required to provide sufficient notice so that a child's parent is able to take action to prevent a gap in coverage for the child. Notice is considered received five days after the date on the notice. The May 3, 2016 renewal notice does not indicate that your children's Child Health Plus plan enrollment would be terminated if you failed to respond. You were first informed that your children's coverage through their Child Health Plus plan would end in the June 17, 2016 disenrollment notice.

The record indicates that on June 16, 2016, you updated your NYSOH account and submitted an updated application for your child.

When changes are made to an individual's application after the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from a change effective the first day of the next following month. Since you would have received NYSOH's notice terminating your children's Child Health Plus eligibility after the 15th of the month, any changes you would have made to your account to prevent a gap in coverage would not have been effective until July 31, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Therefore, NYSOH failed to provide you with sufficient notice that would have allowed you to take action in order to prevent a gap in your children's Child Health Plus coverage. The June 17, 2016 disenrollment notice is RESCINDED.

Decision

The June 17, 2016, disenrollment notice is RESCINDED.

The case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your children's Child Health Plus coverage for the month of July 2016.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 23, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your children should not have been terminated from their Child Health Plus plan in July 2016 because NYSOH failed to issue proper notice.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to reinstate your children into their Child Health Plus for the month of July 2016.

You will be responsible for any applicable premiums in order to effectuate this coverage.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
