Decision Date: February 7, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000012384

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit ended effective October 1, 2016?

Procedural History

On January 9, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were conditionally eligible to receive up to $181.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and conditionally eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective February 1, 2016. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before April 7, 2016.

On January 9, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in qualified health plan with APTC, effective February 1, 2016.

On September 18, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost. The notice stated that you were not eligible to receive APTC or cost-sharing reductions because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application. This eligibility was effective November 1, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On September 18, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan with $0.00 of APTC applied to your premium. The notice stated this was effective February 1, 2016.

On October 4, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your APTC for the month of October, 2016.

On January 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by electronic mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any electronic alerts notifying you of any notice in your NYSOH account stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your income.
- 3) You testified that you did not know that you needed to submit documentation of your income until you received request for full premium payments from your health plan going back to February, 2016.
- 4) Your NYSOH account indicates that on September 17, 2016, your application was run and you were found no longer eligible for APTC as of October 1, 2016.
- 5) You contacted NYSOH and confirmed your household income amount with a representative.
- 6) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your APTC as of October 1, 2016.
- 7) You testified that your APTC was retroactively terminated back to February 1, 2016 and that your qualified health plan was seeking that you pay the full premium for coverage dating back to February 1, 2016.
- 8) There is an incident on file with NYSOH where a representative contacted your health plan and corrected your account to indicate you were eligible for $181.00 in APTC from 1/1/16 through 9/30/16, and again as of 11/1/16, leaving out the month of October, 2016. (See Incident 27540244).

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individual's whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

Electronic Notices

Applicants may choose to receive notices and information from NYSOH by either electronic or regular mail. If the individual elects electronic communications, NYSOH must send an email or other electronic communication alerting the individual when a notice has been posted to his or her account and send a notice by regular mail within three business days if the electronic communication cannot be delivered (45 CFR § 155.230(d); 42 CFR § 435.918(b)(4), (5)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit ended effective October 1, 2016.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to his or her household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking APTC, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on January 9, 2016, you were advised that your eligibility for APTC was only conditional, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before April 7, 2016.

The record reflects that NYSOH did not receive the requested income documentation before the deadline.

However, you testified that you elected to receive alerts regarding notices from NYSOH electronically. You credibly testified that you did not receive any electronic alert regarding the eligibility determination notice, which directed you that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to submit documentation to confirm your income.

There is also no evidence in your account documenting that any email alert was sent to you regarding the need to submit documentation, or that the notice was later sent to you by regular mail.

Therefore, it is concluded that NYSOH did not give you the proper notice that you needed to submit documentation of your income in order to confirm your eligibility for APTC.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since you were not made aware of and did not receive proper notice that there was an inconsistency in your NYSOH account, the September 18, 2016 eligibility determination stating that you are no longer eligible for APTC because you failed to submit documentation is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your APTC for the month of October, 2016.

You testified that your APTC was retroactively terminated back to February 1, 2016 and that your qualified health plan was seeking that you pay the full premium for coverage dating back to February 1, 2016. However, an incident is on file with NYSOH stating that your account had been corrected to indicate you were eligible for $181.00 in APTC from 1/1/16 through 9/30/16, and again as of 11/1/16.

Decision

The September 18, 2016 notice of eligibility determination is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your APTC for the month of October, 2016.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 7, 2017
