Decision

Decision Date: February 1, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000012522

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016?

Procedural History

On September 16, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid because your household income of $13,980.00 was at or below the allowable income limit. This eligibility was effective as of September 1, 2016.

Also on September 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your request for help with paying medical bills for the three-month period prior to the application dated September 15, 2016. This notice requested that you provide documentation proving your income for the period between June 1, 2016 and June 30, 2016 by September 30, 2016.

On September 22, 2016, NYSOH received six earning statements issued to you by your employer, [REDACTED] between May 27, 2016 and July 1, 2016.

On September 28, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016 because the monthly household income of $1,454.47 is over the allowable monthly income limit of $1,367.00.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On October 13, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as it denied retroactive Medicaid for the month of June 2016.

On January 27, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2016 federal income tax return as single, and claim no dependents on your tax return.
- 2) You were initially found eligible for Medicaid as of September 15, 2016. You testified that you are seeking retroactive Medicaid coverage for the month of June 2016.
- 3) You testified that you are paid weekly by your current employer, [REDACTED]. On September 22, 2016, you uploaded a four paystubs reflecting that you were paid a gross amount of (1) $366.56 on June 6, 2016, (2) $324.14 on June 13, 2016, (3) $411.39 on June 20, 2016, and (4) $352.38 on June 27, 2016.
- 4) You testified that you were seeking to be found eligible for Medicaid during the month of June 2016 because you had incurred significant medical bills during that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid through NYSOH can be provided to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the federal poverty level (FPL) for the applicable family size (42 CFR §§ 435.119(b), 435.911(b)(1), 435.603(d)(4); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014). Family size equals the number of individuals for whom the taxpayer is allowed a deduction under 26 USC § 151 for the taxable year, which typically includes: (1) the taxpayer, (2) his or her spouse, and (3) any claimed dependents (26 USC § 36B(d)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016.

You are in a one-person household; you testified that you expected to file your taxes with a tax filing status of single and claim no dependent on your tax return.

You were initially found eligible for Medicaid in the September 16, 2016 eligibility determination notice. According to this notice, your coverage with Medicaid began September 1, 2016.

You testified that you are seeking to have your Medicaid coverage retroactively applied for the month of June 2016.

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid in June 2016, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during June 2016.

You testified that you are paid weekly. You uploaded a four paystubs reflecting that you were paid a gross amount of (1) $366.56 on June 6, 2016, (2) $324.14 on June 13, 2016, (3) $411.39 on June 20, 2016, and (4) $352.38 on June 27, 2016. Therefore, the record indicates that in the month of June 2016, you had a monthly household income of $1,454.47.

Since your income of $1,454.47 was more than the $1,367.00 monthly Medicaid limit for June 2016, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage during that month. Therefore, the September 28, 2016 eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid in the month of June 2016, is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The September 28, 2016 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 1, 2017
