Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your spouse did not qualify to select a plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2016?

Procedural History

On August 18, 2016, you submitted an application for financial assistance with NYSOH.

On August 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination that stated you and your spouse were found newly eligible to receive advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and cost-sharing reductions (CSR).

On October 11, 2016 NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination that stated that you and your spouse were eligible for up to $529.00 per month in APTC, as well as CSR if you selected a silver-level plan. The notice further stated that your spouse must have a qualifying event in order to select a plan outside of open enrollment. The notice advised your spouse to sign into her account and answer the questions about the Special Enrollment Period.

On October 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a preliminary eligibility determination that stated that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $529.00 per month in APTC, as well as CSR if you selected a silver-level plan. It further stated that your spouse did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also, on October 19, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination insofar as your spouse was not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On October 20, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination that stated that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $529.00 per month in APTC, as well as CSR if you selected a silver-level plan. It further stated that your spouse did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2016.

On February 1, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record indicates that you submitted your initial application for 2016 health insurance coverage on August 18, 2016.
- 2) You testified that you are seeking insurance for you and your spouse.
- 3) You testified that there have been no significant changes in your immediate household such as a birth, death, marriage, or permanent move.
- 4) You testified that you did not realize that you had to enroll your spouse for coverage during the open enrollment period.
- 5) You testified that your spouse was denied a special enrollment period in October 2016.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NY State of Health (NYSOH) must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2016, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2015, and extended through January 31, 2016 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a QHP, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent involuntarily loses certain health insurance coverage:
  - (a) Health insurance considered to be minimum essential coverage;
  - (b) Enrolled in any non-calendar year health insurance policy, even if they have the option to renew the expiring non-calendar year individual health insurance policy; or
  - (c) Pregnancy-related coverage; or
  - (d) Medically needy coverage.
- (2) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care; or
- (3) The qualified individual or his or her dependent, who was not previously a citizen, national, or lawfully present individual gains such status; or
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of the Exchange or HHS, or its instrumentalities as evaluated and determined by the Exchange; or a non-Exchange entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities; or
- (5) The enrollee or dependent adequately demonstrates to the Exchange that the QHP in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee; or

- (6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or has a change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions; or
- (7) The qualified individual, enrollee, or their dependent, gains access to new QHPs as a result of a permanent move; or
- (8) The qualified individual is an Indian, as defined by section 4 of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, and may enroll in a QHP or change from one QHP to another one time per month; or
- (9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or their dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your spouse did not qualify to select a plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2016.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2015 until January 31, 2016. The record indicates that you submitted a complete application on August 18, 2016. Therefore, you did not complete your application for you and your spouse during the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

You testified that you did not realize that you had to enroll your spouse for coverage during the open enrollment period. You testified that there have been no significant changes in your immediate household such as a birth, death, marriage, or permanent move.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2016, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify your spouse for a special enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Therefore, NYSOH's October 20, 2016 eligibility determination that your spouse did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2016 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The October 20, 2016 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 10, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your spouse does not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to U.S. Department of Health and Human Services or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you wish to be represented by an attorney in bringing an outside appeal and do not know how to go about getting one, you may contact legal resources available to you. You may, for example, contact the local County Bar Association, Legal Aid, or Legal Services.
