Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective October 31, 2016?

Procedural History

On July 6, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective August 1, 2016. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before October 3, 2016.

Also on July 6, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2016.

On October 11, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan would end as of October 31, 2016, because you were no longer eligible to remain in your plan.

On October 12, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice, based on a system update of October 10, 2016, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $154.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective November 1, 2016. The notice stated that you were eligible for APTC because federal and state data sources show that your household income was within the range of $16,243.00 and $47,080.00 for APTC based on your household size.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On October 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not decide about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by December 15, 2016 or you might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

On November 14, 2016, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared finding you eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2016. That same day, you selected a plan for enrollment.

Also on November 14, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your Essential Plan for the month of November 2016.

On November 15, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2016.

Also on November 15, 2016, NYSOH issue an enrollment confirmation notice, based on your plan selection on November 14, 2016, stating that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan effective December 1, 2016.

On February 17, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by electronic mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any electronic alerts notifying you of any notice in your NYSOH account stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your income.
- 3) You testified that you did not receive any notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 4) Your NYSOH account indicates that on October 10, 2016, your application was run and you were found no longer eligible for the Essential Plan as of October 31, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 5) You testified that you did not know that you needed to submit documentation of your income until you went to a laboratory for medical tests ordered by your primary care physician in early November 2016. You were informed by the lab personnel that your insurance coverage had lapsed.
- 6) You updated the income information in your NYSOH account on November 14, 2016.
- 7) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your Essential Plan for the month of November 2016 because you have unpaid medical bills for that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for the Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

NYSOH must verify the eligibility of an applicant for the Essential Plan consistent with the standards set in 45 CFR § 155.315 and § 155.320 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, pgs. 16-17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>; 42 CFR § 600.345(a)(2)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR §155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any updates in eligibility to the Essential Plan effective the first day of the following month for changes received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)). For updates received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(ii); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)).

Electronic Notices

Applicants may choose to receive notices and information from NYSOH either by electronic alerts or by regular mail. If the applicant elects to receive electronic notices, NYSOH must send an email or other electronic communication alerting the individual that a notice has been posted to the applicant's account (42 CFR § 600.330(e); 42 CFR § 435.918(b)(4)).

Additionally, if an electronic alert regarding a notice in an individual's NYSOH account fails, NYSOH must send out the notice by regular mail within three days of the failed alert (42 CFR § 435.918(b)(5)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective October 31, 2016.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to his or her household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking enrollment in the Essential Plan, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources to verify an individual's income attestation.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on July 6, 2016, you were advised that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before October 3, 2016.

The record reflects that NYSOH did not receive the requested income documentation before the deadline.

However, you testified that you elected to receive alerts regarding notices from NYSOH electronically. You credibly testified that you did not receive an electronic alert regarding the eligibility determination notice, which was to advise you that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to submit documentation to confirm your income. There is also no evidence in your account documenting that any email alert was sent to you regarding the need to submit documentation or that it failed; nor is there any evidence that the notice was sent to you by regular mail.

Therefore, it is concluded that NYSOH did not give you the proper notice that you needed to submit documentation of your income to confirm your eligibility for the Essential Plan.

Since you were not made aware of and did not receive proper notice that there was an inconsistency in your NYSOH account, the October 12, 2016 eligibility redetermination and October 11, 2016 disenrollment notices, stating that you are no longer eligible for the Essential Plan because you failed to submit documentation are RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your coverage in your Essential Plan as of November 1, 2016.

You will be responsible for any insurance premium due for coverage in the month of November 2016 to resume.
