Decision

Decision Date: March 01, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000013312

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive $0.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Procedural History

On November 16, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your completed application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared with regard to that application, stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of $0.00 per month and that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective January 1, 2017.

Also on November 16, 2016, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that preliminary eligibility determination insofar as you were not found eligible for APTC in any amount or for CSR.

On November 17, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the November 16, 2016 application, stating in relevant part, that you were eligible to receive APTC of $0.00 per month and that you were not eligible for CSR, effective January 1, 2017.

On February 23, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only.
- 3) The application that was submitted on November 16, 2016, listed annual household income of $76,200.00, consisting of (1) your expected Social Security income of $8,400.00, (2) your spouse's income of $55,800.00 that he receives from his employment and (3) $12,000.00 your adult son receives from part-time employment. You testified that all these amounts were correct.
- 4) The application that was submitted on November 16, 2016 states that your adult son is a dependent and will be filing taxes. You testified he is a full time student.
- 5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2016 tax return.
- 6) Your application states and you testified that you live in ██████ County, New York.
- 7) You testified that you are seeking to be found eligible for a greater amount of APTC and cost sharing reductions because the plans available to you through NYSOH are unaffordable without a greater subsidy.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2016 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc. 2014-37, IRS Rev. Proc. 2014-62).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 300% but less than 400% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution in 2017 is 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2014-37, IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4T).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of $0.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on November 16, 2016 listed an annual household income of $76,200.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a three-person household. You expect to file your 2016 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in ██████ County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $368.26 per month.

An annual income of $76,200.00 is 377.97% of the 2016 FPL for a three-person household. At 377.97% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 9.69% of income, or $615.32 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($615.32 per month), which equals $ -158.86 per month. Therefore, since your expected contribution exceeded the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available in your county, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for $0.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $76,200.00 is 377.97% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

Since the November 17, 2016 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for $0.00 per month in APTC and ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
