Decision

Decision Date: March 3, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID:

Appeal Identification Number: AP00000013376

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016?

Procedural History

On September 2, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for health insurance.

On September 3, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid because your household income of $14,350.00 is at or below the allowable income limit. This eligibility was effective as of August 1, 2016.

On September 3, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016 because the monthly household income of $2,376.00 is over the allowable monthly income limit of $1,367.00.

On November 18, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the September 3, 2016 eligibility determination notice insofar as it denied retroactive Medicaid for the month of June, 2016.

On February 10, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and left open for 15 days to allow you time to submit proof of your income from your employer for May, June, and July, 2016. The record remained open until the end of the 15-day time frame and no documents were submitted. The record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2016 federal income tax return as single, and claim no dependents.
- You were initially found eligible for Medicaid as of August 1, 2016. You testified you are seeking retroactive Medicaid coverage for the month of June, 2016.
- 3) Your September 2, 2016 application states you will have an expected yearly income of $14,350.00.
- The record shows you faxed three pages to NYSOH on August 17, 2016 from your employer stating your last day of employment was on February 19, 2016. See Document The Boundary 19, 2016. The documentation was validated by NYSOH as proof of no income on September 2, 2016.
- Your application states you have a second employer through. On August 17, 2016, you provided a letter from your employer for that company stating you were employed from May 2, 2016 through July 29, 2016. There were no income amounts provided.
- 6) You testified that the monthly income amount of $2,376.00 for June, 2016 sounded accurate.
- 7) You reside in Kings County, NY.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid through NYSOH can be provided to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the federal poverty level (FPL) for the applicable family size (42 CFR §§ 435.119(b), 435.911(b)(1), 435.603(d)(4); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016.

You are in a one-person household; you file your taxes with a tax filing status of single and claim no dependents on your tax return.

You were initially found eligible for Medicaid in the September 3, 2016 eligibility determination notice. According to this notice, your coverage with Medicaid began August 1, 2016.

You testified that you are seeking to have your Medicaid coverage retroactively applied for the month of June, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

To be eligible for Medicaid in June, 2016 you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during June, 2016.

You testified that you were employed during the month of June, 2016 with a short term contract through, . On August 17, 2016 you provided a letter from your employer for that company stating you were employed from May 2, 2016 through July 29, 2016. During your hearing you testified that the monthly income amount of $2,376.00 you provided for June 2016 sounded accurate.

The record was kept open 15 days for you provide paystubs from your employer or a letter from your employer stating the gross wages you received for May, June, and July, 2016. As of the close of the record, no documentation was received by the NYSOH Appeals Unit.

Therefore, absent evidence to the contrary, the credible evidence of the record indicates that in the month of June, 2016, you had a monthly household income of $2,376.00.

Since your income of $2,376.00 was more than the $1,367.00 monthly Medicaid limit for June, 2016, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage during that month. Therefore, the September 3, 2016 eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid in the month of June, 2016, is correct and is AFFIRMED.
