Decision

Decision Date: April 04, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000013550

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH and not eligible for advanced payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) or cost-sharing reductions, effective January 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On November 18, 2016, you updated your household's application for financial assistance with health insurance for 2017.

On November 19, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2017. The notice stated that you and your spouse were not eligible to receive APTC or cost-sharing reductions because APTC was paid to your health insurance company to reduce your premium costs in a prior year and NYSOH could not ascertain if a federal tax return was filed for that year.

On November 28, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed this determination insofar as you and your spouse were found ineligible for APTC.

On February 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and left open for thirty days to allow you time to submit supporting documentation, specifically, the Hearing Officer requested that you submit your 2015 IRS tax transcript. No documentation was received within the allotted time. The record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your NYSOH account reflects that APTC was paid on your behalf in 2015.
- 2) You testified that your 2015 tax return was filed late. You were granted an extension to file until October 15, 2016, however, your return was not officially filed until January 2, 2017.
- 3) On December 9, 2016, a copy of your prepared 2015 tax return was uploaded to your NYSOH account.
- 4) You have not submitted a copy of your 2015 IRS tax transcript.
- 5) You testified that you and your spouse anticipate filing your 2016 and 2017 tax returns as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents on those returns.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

Generally, NYSOH must conduct annual eligibility redeterminations for qualified individuals who are seeking financial assistance through insurance affordability programs for the upcoming year, such as tax credits and cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, or Child Health Plus. In such cases, NYSOH is required to request that the qualified individual provide updated income and family size information for use in an eligibility redetermination for the upcoming year (see 45 CFR § 155.335(a) and (b)).

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

People who use APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

NYSOH may not determine a tax filer eligible for APTC if APTC was paid on the tax filer's behalf in a previous year, and a tax return was not filed for that previous year (45 CFR § 155.305(f)(4)).

For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH and not eligible for advanced payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) or cost-sharing reductions, effective January 1, 2017.

On November 18, 2016, NYSOH received your household's application for financial assistance for 2017. On November 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2017, and ineligible to receive APTC or cost-sharing reductions. This was because APTC was paid to your health insurance company on your behalf in a prior year and NYSOH could not ascertain if a federal tax return was filed for that year.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You testified that you and your spouse had obtained an extension on your 2015 tax return until October 15, 2016. You further testified that your tax return was officially filed on January 2, 2017. On December 9, 2016, a copy of your 2015 tax return was uploaded to your NYSOH account.

At the time of your November 18, 2016 application, NYSOH had not received information from the IRS that your household's tax return for 2015 had been properly filed. If NYSOH is unable to obtain information that a prior year's tax return has been filed, NYSOH may not determine a tax filer eligible for APTC, if APTC was paid on the tax filer's behalf in a previous year.

Although you testified that you and your spouse have since filed your 2015 tax return and a copy of your 2015 tax return was uploaded to your NYSOH account, the Hearing Officer requested that you submit a copy of your 2015 IRS tax transcript and left the record open for thirty days to allow you to submit this documentation. You did not submit your 2015 IRS tax transcript within the allotted time, therefore, you have not submitted sufficient proof that you and your spouse filed your 2015 tax return.

As you and your spouse received APTC in 2015 and there is insufficient evidence in the record to demonstrate that you and your spouse filed your 2015 tax return, the November 19, 2016 eligibility determination finding you and your spouse eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2017, and ineligible to receive APTC or cost-sharing reductions is AFFIRMED.

However, as you testified that you and your spouse's tax return was officially filed January 2, 2017, the IRS may have since updated its electronic data sources. Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to rerun your application in order to ascertain whether the IRS data sources now reflect that you and your spouse have filed your 2015 tax return, and to determine if you and your spouse are now eligible for financial assistance with health insurance.

Decision

The November 19, 2016 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to rerun your application in order to ascertain whether the IRS data sources now reflect that you and your spouse have filed your 2015 tax return, and to determine if you and your spouse are now eligible for financial assistance with health insurance.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 04, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You and your spouse remain eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to determine if the IRS data sources now reflect that you and your spouse filed your 2015 tax return, and if so, to redetermine your and your spouse's eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
