Appeal Identification Number: AP000000013606

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health(NYSOH) properly determine you were not eligible for Medicaid as of November 30, 2016?

Procedural History

On October 6, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice welcoming you to NYSOH and stating it was time to renew your health coverage. The notice indicated you had Medicaid coverage through your Local Department of Social Services (LDSS) and your current coverage would end on December 31, 2016. The notice directed you to log into the NYSOH account that had been started for you, between November 16, 2016 and December 15, 2016, to complete the renewal process for the upcoming coverage year.

On October 14, 2016, an application for financial assistance with health insurance through NYSOH was submitted on your behalf.

On October 15, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were not eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH because state and federal data sources indicated you were receiving Medicare.

On November 19, 2016, November 29, 2016, and November 30, 2016, NYSOH issued eligibility determination notices, based on your updated applications submitted, stating you were not eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH because state and federal data sources indicated you were receiving Medicare.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 29, 2016, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were not eligible for Medicaid.

On March 10, 2016, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 2) You testified you were enrolled in Medicaid through your LDSS in 2016. You testified you were directed by your LDSS that you had to recertify for coverage for the 2017 coverage year through NYSOH.
- 3) You testified your Medicaid coverage through your LDSS ended December 31, 2016.
- 4) You testified, and your account confirms, you have been enrolled in Medicare since July 2015. You testified you believe you are enrolled in both Medicare Parts A and B.
- 5) You testified you have been getting bounced back and forth between your LDSS and NYSOH. You testified your LDSS advised you it could not enroll you in coverage for 2017 until NYSOH forwarded a determination denying coverage directly to the LDSS. You testified you provided your LDSS with a copy of the eligibility determination notices issued by NYSOH denying coverage based on your Medicare enrollment, however, the LDSS would not accept them.
- 6) You testified you have been without Medicaid coverage since the beginning of 2017.
- 7) You testified you are seeking eligibility to enroll in Medicaid from either your LDSS or NYSOH as of January 1, 2017.
- 8) Your application indicates you reside in [REDACTED]

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b); see also 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(A)(i), 42 USCS §§ 1395c et seq.).

In general, to qualify for MAGI-based Medicaid through NYSOH, you must also be one of the following:

- An adult aged 19-64 who is not eligible for Medicare Part A or Part B,
- A pregnant woman or infant,
- A child aged 1-18, or
- A parent or caretaker relative

(45 CFR § 155.305(c); NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

If an individual does not fall into one of these categories, he or she may still be eligible for non-MAGI-based Medicaid coverage through their Local Department of Social Services or the New York City Human Resources Administration (see NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(c)).

NYSOH is required to refer an individual who is not eligible for MAGI-based Medicaid because they are in receipt of Medicare, certified disabled, or over the age of 65 to the Local Department of Social Services or the Human Resources Administration. During the referral process, an individual's Medicaid eligibility, including their enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan or receipt of Premium Payment Assistance, continues until such a time as their eligibility can be redetermined on a non-MAGI Medicaid basis (see generally 42 CFR § 435.1200, 42 CFR § 435.930, 14 OHIP/LCM-2 effective as of December 1, 2014, GIS 16 MA/04 effective as of January 1, 2016).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined you were not eligible for Medicaid as of November 30, 2016.

To be eligible for MAGI-based Medicaid through NYSOH, a person cannot be entitled to or enrolled in Medicare Part A or B.

You testified, and your account confirms, you have been eligible for and enrolled in Medicare since July 2015. As such, pursuant to the regulations, you are not eligible to enroll in Medicaid through NYSOH.

Therefore, the November 30, 2016 eligibility determination notice stating you are not eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH, is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Individuals who are not eligible for MAGI-based Medicaid because they are receiving Medicare, over the age of 65, or have become certified disabled may qualify for Medicaid under non-MAGI standards. NYSOH is required to refer these individuals to their LDSS for redetermination of their Medicaid eligibility.

Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to refer your case to the [REDACTED] County Department of Social Services.
