Decision

Decision Date: April 27, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000013717

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $292.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On December 1, 2016, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to receive up to $292.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 1, 2016, you spoke to a representative of NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination insofar as you were not found eligible for a more affordable program.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 2, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the December 1, 2016 preliminary determination, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $292.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017. That notice stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan or Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limits for those programs. This notice also stated that to confirm your eligibility you need to submit proof of income by February 27, 2017.

On March 16, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on December 1, 2016 listed annual household income of $26,880.00, consisting of income you earn from your employment. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) The system calculated your monthly income to be $2,240.00.
- 5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 6) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED]
- 7) You testified that you think your child support payments should be deducted from your household income.
- 8) You further testified that you are unable to afford your health insurance and that you would like to be found eligible for Medicaid.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one -person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution in 2017 is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one -person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

As of the date of your hearing, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one -person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses and child support are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Affordability Exemption

Under some circumstances, a person may receive an exemption from paying a penalty for not purchasing health insurance coverage. Such an exemption may be granted if that person can show that he or she experienced a financial hardship or has domestic circumstances that (1) caused an unexpected increase in essential expenses that prevented that person from obtaining health coverage under a QHP; (2) would have caused the person to experience serious deprivation of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, as a result of the expense of purchasing health coverage under a QHP; or (3) prevented that person from obtaining coverage under a QHP (45 CFR § 155.605(a), (g)).

NYSOH has deferred to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on the matter of hardship exemptions (see 45 CFR § 155.505(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $292.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on December 1, 2016 listed an annual household income of $26,880.00.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your current child support payments be considered when calculating your annual household income.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow child support payments to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $26,880.00.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED] where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $26,880.00 is 226.26% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 226.26% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2017 is 7.36% of income, or $164.86 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($164.86 per month), which equals $291.60 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $292.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $26,880.00 is 226.26% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since $26,880.00 is 226.26% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

The same outcome would be reached using the 2017 FPL of $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $26,880.00 is 222.89% of the 2017 FPL, you would not qualify for Medicaid using the 2017 FPL.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

Your application from December 1, 2016 states that your expected annual income is $26,880.00 and you testified that this amount was correct. Using the information provided in your December 1, 2016 application, the system calculated a monthly income of $2,240.00.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. Since the system calculated your monthly income to be $2,240.00 in December 2016, which exceeds the maximum allowable monthly income amount of $1,367.00, you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the December 2, 2016 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $292.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

You testified that you cannot afford to pay for health insurance even with subsidies, which may qualify you for an exemption. If you wish to be considered for a hardship exemption, which would exempt you from paying a penalty for not having health insurance during 2017, you can check the Federal Marketplace website (www.healthcare.gov) for direction.

Decision

The December 2, 2016 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.
