Decision

Decision Date: March 31, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000013852

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $529.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective February 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On December 9, 2015, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2016.

Also on December 9, 2015, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice confirming enrollment in an Essential Plan for you and your spouse, effective January 1, 2016.

On October 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of renewal stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $477.54 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective January 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 24, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating coverage in the Essential Plan for you and your spouse would end effective December 31, 2016, because you were no longer eligible for the Essential Plan.

On December 6, 2016, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of the renewal notice as it related to the level of APTC and eligibility for the Essential Plan.

On December 8, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice confirming you and your spouse's enrollment in a silver level qualified health plan, with APTC and CSR, effective January 1, 2017.

On January 18, 2017, NYSOH received your completed application for health insurance.

On January 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the January 18, 2017 application, stating that you and your spouse were eligible for up to $529.00 per month in APTC, as well as CSR.

Also, on January 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice confirming you and your spouse's enrollment in a silver level qualified health plan with APTC and CSR effective, February 1, 2017.

On March 10, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The October 19, 2016 notice of renewal determined you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $477.54 per month in APTC, as well as CSR, effective January 1, 2017.
- 2) On November 24, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that you and your spouse's coverage in the Essential Plan would end effective December 31, 2016.
- 3) On December 6, 2016, you requested an appeal of the October 19, 2016 renewal/eligibility determination as it related to you and your spouse's level of APTC and the November 24, 2016 disenrollment notice ending you and your spouse's coverage in the Essential Plan.

- 4) At the hearing, you testified that you were only appealing the January 19, 2017 eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible for $529.00 per month in APTC, as well as CSR. You testified that the amount of APTC you are currently receiving is not sufficient.
- 5) You testified that you would like eligibility for you and your spouse to be redetermined for the Essential Plan.
- 6) You testified that your 2017 household expenses and prescription medication costs make it difficult for you and your spouse to pay your health insurance premiums.
- 7) You testified that you expect to file your 2016 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 8) The application that was submitted on January 18, 2017 listed annual household income of $43,420.00, consisting of $29,120.00 you earn from your employment and $14,300.00 your spouse earns from her employment. You testified that these amounts were correct.
- 9) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2016 tax return.
- 10) Your application states that you live in Monroe County.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2016 is set by federal law at 2.03% to 9.66% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc. 2014-37, IRS Rev. Proc. 2014-62).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2014-37, IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (80 Fed. Reg. 3236, 3237).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were eligible for an APTC of up to $529.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on January 19, 2017 listed an annual household income of $43,420.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a three-person household. You expect to file your 2016 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in Monroe County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a couple costs $781.58 per month.

An annual income of $43,420.00 is 215.38% of the 2016 FPL for a three-person household. At 215.38% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 6.98% of income, or $252.56 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a primary subscriber in your county ($781.58 per month) minus your expected contribution ($252.56 per month), which equals $529.02 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you and your spouse to be eligible for up to $529.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you and your spouse were properly found eligible for CSRs, which are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $43,420.00 is 215.38% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your spouse to be eligible for CSR.

The third issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan. The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $20,160.00 for a three-person household. Since an annual household income of $43,420.00 is 215.38% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the January 19, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you and your spouse were eligible for $529.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Based on your hearing testimony indicating that you were appealing the January 19, 2017 eligibility determination and seeking a redetermination of your Essential Plan eligibility effective February 1, 2017, the October 19, 2016 notice of renewal and November 24, 2016 disenrollment notice were determined no longer under review.
