Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did the NY State of Health properly determine that your child's enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan was effective December 1, 2016?

Procedural History

On October 18, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your October 17, 2016 application, stating that your child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $9.00 monthly premium, effective December 1, 2016.

Also on October 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on October 17, 2016, stating that your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan, and that this enrollment in the plan would start December 1, 2016.

On December 16, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your child's Child Health Plus plan insofar as it did not begin November 1, 2016.

On May 9, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing only your child's eligibility.
- 2) You testified that your child has had Child Health Plus through NYSOH for several years.
- 3) You testified that your child has never had Child Health Plus directly through the county or directly through the plan.
- 4) You testified that you did not receive a renewal notice for your child's Child Health Plus coverage.
- 5) The NYSOH system reflects that your child had no coverage through NYSOH prior to December 1, 2016.
- 6) You updated your household's application for financial assistance through NYSOH to indicate that your child was seeking coverage on October 17, 2016.
- 7) You testified, and the record reflects, that you enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan that same day, October 17, 2016.
- 8) You testified that you need your child's Child Health Plus plan to begin on November 1, 2016 because he has outstanding medical bills for that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Child Health Plus

The "period of eligibility" for Child Health Plus is "that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date," unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage” (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child’s enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan was effective December 1, 2016.

There is no indication that your child ever had coverage through NYSOH prior to December 1, 2016.

The record reflects that you contacted NYSOH on October 17, 2016 and updated your household’s application for health insurance to indicate that your child was seeking health insurance. You enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan that same day.

The date on which a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

As you updated your household’s application and selected a Child Health Plus plan for enrollment on October 17, 2016, NYSOH properly determined that your child’s eligibility and enrollment began on the first day of the second month following October 2016; that is, on December 1, 2016.

Therefore, the October 18, 2016 eligibility determination and October 18, 2016 enrollment confirmation notice stating that your child’s eligibility for and enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan was effective December 1, 2016, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.
