Decision

Decision Date: April 10, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000014158

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid from October 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016?

Procedural History

On November 17, 2016, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance, in which you declined to apply for assistance in covering medical expenses for the prior three months.

On November 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective November 1, 2016.

Also on November 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation confirming your enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, with a plan start date of January 1, 2017.

On December 5, 2016, you updated your application and indicated that you were seeking help paying for medical bills for October 2016.

On December 6, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid for October 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016 because the monthly household income of $4,400.00 was over the allowable monthly income limit of $3,747.00.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 19, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as it denied retroactive Medicaid for the month of October 2016.

On March 9, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing held open through March 24, 2017, to allow you to submit documentation of income received in the month of October 2016.

On March 17, 2017, you faxed documentation to NYSOH. No further documentation was received by the NYSOH Appeals Unit, and the record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking Medicaid coverage for October 1, 2016.
- 2) The application that you submitted on December 5, 2016 indicated that you expect to file your 2016 tax return as married, filing jointly.
- 3) You first submitted an application for financial assistance on November 17, 2016, and you indicated in that application that you were pregnant and expecting one child on [REDACTED]
- 4) Your application submitted on December 5, 2016 states that, for the month of October 2016, your income was $4,400.00. You testified that amount was correct.
- 5) You testified that you are paid monthly and receive $4,400.00 per paycheck before taxes.
- 6) You testified that you work at [REDACTED], and so you only receive paychecks for 10 months out of 12, and that your annual salary is therefore $44,000.00.
- 7) Your December 5, 2016 application indicates that your spouse does not have any income, and you testified that this is correct.
- 8) You testified that you have medical bills from October 2016 that you need assistance paying.

- 9) You testified that you believe your monthly income should be calculated differently, since you are only paid for ten months out of the year.
- 10) After the hearing, you faxed a paystub dated November 28, 2016 for a gross pay amount of $4,400.00. This document is marked and entered the record as “Appellant’s Exhibit One.”

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Household Composition

For purposes of Medicaid eligibility, the household size of either a pregnant woman or a person who is in the family of a pregnant woman includes not only the pregnant woman, but also the number of children she expects to deliver (42 CFR § 435.603(b); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved by the US Department of Health and Human Services, March 19, 2014).

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the federal poverty level (FPL) for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

FPL for Pregnant Women

Medicaid is currently available to pregnant women who have a modified adjusted gross income at or below 223% of the FPL for the applicable family size (see 42 CFR § 435.116(c); NY Department of Health Administrative Directive 13ADM-03).

Retroactive Medicaid

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of an initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 USCA § 1396A(34); 42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for October 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016.

You were in a two-person household and were expecting one child as of your November 17, 2016 application; you file your taxes with a tax filing status of married, filing jointly.

You submitted an updated application for financial assistance on December 5, 2016 in which you requested help in paying for medical bills for October 2016.

When an individual files an initial application for Medicaid, his or her eligibility for retroactive Medicaid depends on the date of application. To this end, it does not matter whether that initial application resulted in Medicaid going forward. Instead, an individual, who has filed an initial application for Medicaid through NYSOH, has the right to be evaluated for Medicaid for the three months before the month of his or her application.

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

You testified that you are seeking Medicaid for the month of October 2016.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid in October 2016, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 223% of the FPL, which is $3,747.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during October 2016.

You testified that you are paid monthly, and that you earn $4,400.00 a month. You testified that your gross income in October 2016 was $4,400.00, but you testified that you are a [REDACTED] and so you are only paid for ten months of the year. However, retroactive Medicaid is based on the amount of income received in the month for which coverage is being sought. Therefore, the record accurately indicates that in the month of October 2016, you had a monthly household income of $4,400.00.

Since your income of $4,400.00 was more than the $3,747.00 monthly Medicaid limit for October 2016, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage during that month. Therefore, the December 6, 2016 eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid in the month of October 2016, is correct and is AFFIRMED.
