Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective October 31, 2016?

Procedural History

On January 31, 2016, NY State of Health (NYOSH) received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On February 1, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective March 1, 2016. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before April 30, 2016.

Also on February 1, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan, effective March 1, 2016.

On September 18, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to receive up to $228.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, as well as cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan. The notice stated that you were not eligible to enroll in Medicaid because state and federal sources showed that your household income was over the allowable limits for that program. This eligibility was effective November 1, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on September 18, 2016, NYOSH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan would end as of October 31, 2016 because you are no longer eligible to remain in your current health insurance.

On December 15, 2016, you updated your application for financial assistance.

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017. This notice further directed you to submit income documentation confirming your income by March 15, 2017.

Also on December 16, 2016, NYSOH issue a notice of enrollment confirmation, based on your plan selection on December 15, 2016, stating that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan effective January 1, 2017.

On December 20, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your Essential Plan for the month of November 2016 and December 2016.

On March 17, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you receive your notices from NYSOH by electronic mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any electronic alerts notifying you of any notice in your NYSOH account stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your income.
- 3) You testified that you thought NYOSH had access to data sources for your income information, because when you applied on January 31, 2016 your income was auto filled.
- 4) You testified that you did not know that you needed to submit documentation of your income until you received a letter from your health plan in September 2016 that you were being disenrolled from your health insurance plan.

- 5) Your NYSOH account indicates that on September 17, 2016, your eligibility was redetermined and you were found no longer eligible for the Essential Plan as of October 31, 2016.
- 6) You updated the income information in your NYSOH account on December 15, 2016.
- 7) You testified that you waited so long to reapply for your coverage because you were under the impression you would have to wait until the open enrollment period for 2017 to re-enroll.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your Essential Plan for the months of November 2016 and December 2016.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for the Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

NYSOH must verify the eligibility of an applicant for the Essential Plan consistent with the standards set in 45 CFR § 155.315 and § 155.320 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, pgs. 16-17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>; 42 CFR § 600.345(a)(2)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any updates in eligibility to the Essential Plan effective the first day of the following month for changes received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)). For updates received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(ii); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)).

Electronic Notices

Applicants may choose to receive notices and information from NYSOH either by electronic alerts or by regular mail. If the applicant elects to receive electronic notices, NYSOH must send an email or other electronic communication alerting the individual that a notice has been posted to the applicant's account (42 CFR § 600.330(e); 42 CFR § 435.918(b)(4)).

Additionally, if an electronic alert regarding a notice in an individual's NYSOH account fails, NYSOH must send out the notice by regular mail within three days of the failed alert (42 CFR § 435.918(b)(5)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective October 31, 2016.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to his or her household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking enrollment in the Essential Plan, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on February 1, 2016, you were advised that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before April 30, 2016.

The record reflects that NYSOH did not receive the requested income documentation before the deadline.

However, you testified that you elected to receive alerts regarding notices from NYSOH electronically. You credibly testified that you did not receive an electronic alert regarding the eligibility determination notice, which advised you that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to submit documentation to confirm your income. There is also no evidence in your account documenting that any email alert was sent to you regarding the need to submit documentation, nor is there any evidence that the notice was sent to you by regular mail.

Therefore, it is concluded that NYSOH did not give you the proper notice that you needed to submit documentation of your income to confirm your eligibility for the Essential Plan.

Since you were not made aware of and did not receive proper notice that there was an inconsistency in your NYSOH account, the September 18, 2016 eligibility determination and September 18, 2016 disenrollment notices, stating that you are no longer eligible for the Essential Plan because you failed to submit documentation are RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your coverage in your Essential Plan as of November 2016, and to notify you accordingly.
