Decision

Decision Date: May 11, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000014220

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid effective February 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 20, 2016, you submitted an application for financial assistance.

On December 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that you were conditionally eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective February 1, 2017. The notice stated that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit or Child Health Plus because you were already enrolled in or eligible for a public insurance program such as Medicare. The notice stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because the household income you provided to NYSOH of $34,764.00 was over the allowable income limit of $33,534.00. The notice also stated that individuals enrolled in Medicare cannot receive help paying for health coverage through NYSOH.

Also on December 21, 2016, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of the December 21, 2016 eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not found eligible for Medicaid.

On March 24, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and left open for 15 days to allow you to submit supporting documentation. On March 27, 2017, the Appeals Unit received via fax a copy of your spouse's Official Record

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

of Benefit Payment History from the Department of Labor and a letter confirming the end date of your spouse's unemployment benefits. These documents were collectively marked as Appellant's Exhibit #1 and incorporated into the record. The record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are married and have two dependents.
- 2) You testified that you are [REDACTED].
- 3) The record reflects and you testified that you receive $1,622.00 per month in SSA benefits.
- 4) You testified that you are currently enrolled in Medicare Part A, but not Part B.
- 5) NYSOH records reflect that you have been eligible for Medicare Part A since [REDACTED].
- 6) You testified that you presently are covered under COBRA insurance coverage through your spouse's former employer but that his unemployment benefits ended on March 14, 2017 and the COBRA payments are no longer affordable.
- 7) On March 27, 2017, you faxed copy of your spouse's Official Record of Benefit Payment History and a letter confirming the end date of your spouse's unemployment benefits from the NYS Department of Labor (Appellant's Exhibit #1).
- 8) You testified that you are unable to afford a supplemental health plan since your living expenses reduce your discretionary income to afford this coverage.
- 9) You testified that you are seeking supplemental insurance under Medicaid so that you can access medical care coverage that is unavailable to you through Medicare.
- 10) You live in [REDACTED], New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid Eligibility

An individual is eligible for enrollment in Medicaid through NYSOH (called MAGI-based Medicaid) when he or she meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard (45 CFR § 155.305(c); NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who meet the following non-financial criteria: (1) Are age 19 or older and under age 65; (2) Are not pregnant; (3) Are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act; (4) Are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part; and (5) Have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the federal poverty level (FPL) for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

If an individual does not fall into one of these categories, he or she may still be eligible for non-MAGI-based Medicaid coverage through their Local Department of Social Services or the New York City Human Resources Administration (see NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you are not eligible for Medicaid effective February 1, 2017.

To be eligible for MAGI-based Medicaid through NYSOH, a person cannot be entitled to or enrolled in Medicare Part A or B. You testified that you are currently enrolled in Medicare Part A. NYSOH records reflect that you were eligible for Medicare Part A since [REDACTED]. Therefore, you are not eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH and the December 21, 2016 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

NYSOH does not have the authority to decide if you qualify for non-MAGI-based Medicaid. Since you may be eligible for Medicaid on a non-MAGI basis, NYSOH will refer your case to your local department of social services to determine your eligibility for Medicaid or other Medicare programs.
