Decision

Decision Date: May 16, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000014244

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) provide you proper and adequate notice that your children's eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus terminated as of December 31, 2016?

Procedural History

On December 4, 2015, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your November 28, 2015 application, stating that children were eligible for Child Health Plus effective, January 1, 2016. Your children were subsequently enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with a start date of January 1, 2016.

On October 13, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your children's health insurance for 2017. That notice stated that NYSOH did not have enough information from state and federal data sources to determine whether or not your children qualified for financial help paying for their coverage. The notice asked that you update the information in your account by December 15, 2016 or the financial assistance your children were receiving may end.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2016.

On December 19, 2016, a disenrollment notice was issued stating your children's Child Health Plus plan would end on December 31, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on December 19, 2016, an eligibility determination notice was issued based on your updated application on December 18, 2016. The notice stated your children were eligible for Child Health Plus effective February 1, 2017.

Finally, on December 19, 2016, an enrollment notice was issued stating your children were enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan starting February 1, 2017.

On December 22, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your children's Child Health Plus plan insofar as they did not have coverage for the month of January, 2017.

On May 10, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are only appealing your children's disenrollment from their Child Health Plus plan for the month of January, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you previously received all of your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 3) You testified that you did receive the October 13, 2016 renewal notice indicating the need to renew your children's health insurance by December 15, 2016.
- 4) You testified you provided your information for your updated application to your Broker to update your children's application for renewal.
- 5) The October 13, 2016, renewal notice does not indicate that your children's Child Health Plus plan enrollment would be terminated if you failed to respond. The notice does state that your children's financial eligibility may end.
- 6) The record shows an individual with the screen ID of [REDACTED] updated your application on December 18, 2016. You testified this was your Broker.
- 7) Your Broker enrolled your children into a Child Health Plus plan on December 18, 2016.

- 8) You testified your Broker told you he believed he saw that there was a deadline extension for January 1, 2017 start dates of health plan enrollments.
- 9) You testified you incurred medical bills for the month of January 2017 in the amount of approximately $175.00.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Child Health Plus

A child who meets the eligibility requirements for Child Health Plus may be eligible to receive a subsidy payment if the child resides in a household with a household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

To be eligible for Child Health Plus, the child:

- Must be under 19 years of age;
- Must be a New York State Resident;
- Must not have other health insurance coverage; and
- Must not be eligible for, or enrolled in, Medicaid

(NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)-(e)).

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid, or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage,” including for periodic renewals (42 CFR § 457.340(f); 42 CFR §457.343).

In general, a child eligible for Child Health Plus must recertify their eligibility for enrollment through NYSOH once every twelve months (42 CFR § 457.343; 42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(f)(ii)).42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH is required to provide proper written notice to an applicant of any decision effecting an enrollee's Child Health Plus eligibility (42 CFR § 457.340(e)). When Child Health Plus coverage is denied, suspended or terminated NYSOH must provide sufficient notice to enable the child's parent or caretaker relative to take appropriate actions in order to allow Child Health Plus coverage to continue without interruption (42 CFR § 457.340(e)(1)(D); 42 CFR § 457.1130(a)(3)).

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH provided you proper and adequate notice that your children's eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus terminated as of December 31, 2016.

Your children were originally found eligible for Child Health Plus and enrolled effective January 1, 2016.

Generally, NYSOH must redetermine a qualified child's eligibility for Child Health Plus once every twelve months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's October 13, 2016, renewal notice stated that NYSOH did not have enough information from state and federal data sources to determine whether your children qualified for financial help paying for their coverage. The notice asked that you update the information in your account by December 15, 2016 or the financial assistance your children were receiving may end.

No updates were made to your NYSOH account prior to December 15, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your children's coverage in their Child Health Plus plan would end effective December 31, 2016.

That same day an eligibility determination notice was issued based on your Broker's December 18, 2016 application which found your children eligible to enroll for Child Health Plus.

When NYSOH denies, terminates, or suspends a child's Child Health Plus coverage, they are required to provide sufficient notice so that a child's parent is able to take action to prevent a gap in coverage for the child. Notice is considered received five days after the date on the notice. The October 13, 2016 renewal notice does not indicate that your children's Child Health Plus plan enrollment would be terminated if you failed to respond. You were first informed that your children's coverage through their Child Health Plus plan would end in the December 19, 2016 disenrollment notice.

The record indicates that on December 18, 2016, your Broker updated your NYSOH account and submitted an updated application for your children. You testified your Broker told you he had relied on information that he believed the deadline for January 1, 2017 coverage was extended. Although it is true the deadline for enrollment for a January 1, 2017 start date was extended to December 17, 2016, your Broker applied and enrolled your children on December 18, 2016.

When changes are made to an individual's application after the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from a change effective the first day of the next following month. Since you would have received NYSOH's December 19, 2016, a disenrollment notice stating your children's Child Health Plus plan would end on December 31, 2016, after the 15th of the month, any changes you would have made to your account to prevent a gap in coverage would not have been effective until February 1, 2017 at the earliest.

Since NYSOH failed to provide you with sufficient notice that would have allowed you to take action in order to prevent a gap in Child Health Plus coverage for your children for the month of January, 2017, the December 19, 2016 eligibility determination notice and enrollment notice is MODIFIED to reflect your children are eligible for Child Health Plus effective January 1, 2017.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist in enrolling your children into their Child Health Plus coverage effective January 1, 2017.

The December 19, 2016 eligibility determination notice, and enrollment confirmation notices are MODIFIED to reflect a January 1, 2017 start date.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your children into their Child Health Plus plan for the month of January, 2017, and to notify you accordingly.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 16, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your children should not have been terminated from their Child Health Plus plan December 31, 2016 because NYSOH failed to issue proper notice.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to reinstate your children into their Child Health Plus for the month of January, 2017. NYSOH will notify you once this has been completed.

If applicable, you will be responsible for any premiums due for coverage to resume that month.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
