Decision

Decision Date: April 20, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000014450

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan(QHP), as well as the application of advance premium tax credits(APTC), was effective February 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On October 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your and your spouse's health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not decide whether you and your spouse would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account between November 16, 2016 and December 15, 2016 or you and your spouse might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2016.

On November 27, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that your and your spouse's coverage in your QHP was to end on December 31, 2016. This was because you and your spouse were no longer eligible to enroll in your current health coverage.

On December 19, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice stating that you and your spouse were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost, effective January 1, 2017.

On December 23, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility redetermination, based on your December 22, 2016 updated application, stating that you and your spouse were newly eligible to share in up to $211.00 per month in APTC. This eligibility was effective February 1, 2017.

On December 23, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating in part that you and your spouse needed to pick a plan.

On December 30, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in a QHP with a monthly premium responsibility of $944.20, after your APTC of $211.00 was applied, effective February 1, 2017.

Also on December 30, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your and your spouse's eligibility and enrollment insofar as it began yours and your spouse's financial assistance eligibility on February 1, 2017, and not January 1, 2017.

On March 6, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your NYSOH account indicates that you receive notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any notices from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in yours and your spouse's NYSOH account to ensure that your and your spouse's coverage would not be interrupted and financial assistance would continue.
- 3) No notices sent to you at the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 4) You testified that you live in an apartment complex where your mail is not given directly to you. Your landlord takes your mail, in certain circumstances, where there is no unit number listed on the envelope, and places it in a miscellaneous bin.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 5) You testified that you did not know you needed to renew your application until you spoke to your insurance broker.
- 6) According to your NYSOH and your testimony, you updated the information in your NYSOH account on December 22, 2017. That day you also enrolled you and your spouse into a QHP.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Annual Eligibility Redetermination

Generally, NYSOH must conduct annual eligibility redeterminations for qualified individuals who are seeking financial assistance through insurance affordability programs for the upcoming year, such as tax credits and cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, or Child Health Plus. In such cases, NYSOH is required to request that the qualified individual provide updated income and family size information for use in an eligibility redetermination for the upcoming year (see 45 CFR § 155.335(a) and (b)).

NYSOH must send an annual renewal notice that contains the information by which NYSOH will use to redetermine a qualified individual's projected eligibility for that year (45 CFR § 155.335(c)(3)). If a qualified individual does not respond to the notice after a 30-day period, NYSOH must redetermine that individual's eligibility using the information and projected eligibility provided in the annual renewal notice (45 CFR § 155.335(g), (h)). NYSOH must ensure this redetermination is effective on the first day of the coverage year or in accordance with the rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) regarding effective dates, whichever is later (45 CFR § 155.335(i)). The rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) are not pertinent here.

Redetermination During a Benefit Year

When an eligibility redetermination results in a change in the amount of APTC for a part of the benefit year, NYSOH must recalculate the amount of APTC in such a manner as to account for any advance payments already made (or not made) on behalf of the tax filer, such that the recalculated advance payment amount is projected to result in total advance payments for the benefit year that correspond to the tax filer's total projected premium tax credit for the overall benefit year (45 CFR § 155.330(g)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Any change resulting from redeterminations during a benefit year should be made effective the first day of the month following the date of the notice of redetermination, except that redeterminations resulting from changes made after a date specified by the state, which can be no earlier than the 15th of the month, may not be made effective until the first day of the month after the month following the date of the notice of redetermination. (45 CFR § 155.330(f)(1) and (2). New York has specified that changes made after the 15th of a given month will take effect the month after the following month.

End of Tax Year Reconciliation

At the end of a tax year, a person who elects to take APTC to help pay for the cost of an insurance premium must file a tax return to reconcile any differences between the amount of income the person reported to NYSOH and their actual gross income for that year. A person who received less tax credit than her maximum entitlement, based on gross income, may receive an income tax refund, or owe less in taxes. A person who received more tax credit than his maximum entitlement, based on gross income, will owe the excess as an additional income tax liability (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's enrollment in a QHP as well as application of your and your spouse's APTC began February 1, 2017.

NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for health insurance and financial assistance to help pay for that health insurance annually. NYSOH must issue a renewal notice that contains the individual's projected eligibility. If an individual does not respond to this notice, NYSOH must issue an eligibility determination for the upcoming coverage year based on the information contained in the renewal notice.

On October 14, 2016, NYSOH issued an annual renewal notice in your case. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not decide whether you or your spouse would qualify for financial help with paying for your health coverage. You were asked to update the information in your account between November 16, 2016 and December 15, 2016 or the financial help you and your spouse were receiving might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your and your spouse's eligibility for financial assistance and your enrollment in a QHP was terminated, effective December 31, 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Although, you testified that you live in an apartment complex where your mail is not always given directly to you and that your landlord places some of your mail in a miscellaneous bin, to which you have access, that is not an error of the NYSOH or its agents.

As such, the notices, including those without an apartment number, are deemed sent and received.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your annual renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated to ensure yours and your spouse's enrollment in your health plan and eligibility for financial assistance would continue.

According to your NYSOH and testimony, on December 22, 2016 you updated the information in your NYSOH account and, on December 29, 2016, selected and confirmed your enrollment in a qualified health plan. This resulted in NYSOH issuing a December 23, 2016 eligibility redetermination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to share in up to $211.00 per month in APTC, effective February 1, 2017. Similarly, the December 30, 2016 enrollment confirmation notice stated you were both enrolled in a qualified health plan with APTC to be applied as of February 1, 2017.

When an individual changes information in their application after the 15th of any month, NYSOH will make the redetermination that results from the change effective the first day of the second following month. Additionally, the date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Therefore, NYSOH's December 23, 2016 eligibility determination and December 30, 2016 enrollment confirmation notices are AFFIRMED because they properly began yours and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan as well as your advance premium tax credits on February 1, 2017.
