Decision

Decision Date: May 11, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000014477

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for and enrollment in a qualified health plan and the application of advance payments of the premium tax credit were effective February 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On October 15, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by December 15, 2016 or you might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2016.

On December 19, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid, Child Health Plus, or to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance. You also could not enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost. This was because you had not responded to the renewal notice and had not completed your renewal within the required time frame. Your eligibility would end January 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 29, 2016, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.

On December 30, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility redetermination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $133.00 per month in advance payment of the premium tax credit (APTC) and, if you selected a silver-level qualified health plan, for cost-sharing reductions (CSR). This eligibility was effective February 1, 2017.

Also on December 30, 2016, NYSOH issued a letter confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with a monthly premium responsibility of $492.52, after your APTC of $133.00 was applied, effective February 1, 2017.

Also on December 30, 2016, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination insofar as it began your financial assistance eligibility on February 1, 2017, and not January 1, 2017.

On March 24, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your NYSOH account indicates that you receive notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any notices from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account to ensure that your coverage would not be interrupted and that your financial assistance would continue.
- 3) No notices sent to you at the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 4) You testified that you have had health problems since October 2016 including [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].
- 5) You testified that occasionally you forget to look at your mail.
- 6) You testified that you did not know you needed to renew your application until you contacted your insurance carrier on [REDACTED] to pay your premium and you were advised that you did not have health insurance coverage for January 2017.

- 7) You testified that you updated the information in your NYSOH account on December 29, 2016. That day you also enrolled into a qualified health plan.
- 8) You testified, and your NYSOH account reflects that your QHP and APTC coverage did not begin until February 1, 2017.
- 9) You testified that you incurred costs for a medical visit and prescription drug costs in January 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Annual Eligibility Redetermination

Generally, NYSOH must conduct annual eligibility redeterminations for qualified individuals who are seeking financial assistance through insurance affordability programs for the upcoming year, such as tax credits and cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, or Child Health Plus. In such cases, NYSOH is required to request that the qualified individual provide updated income and family size information for use in an eligibility redetermination for the upcoming year (see 45 CFR § 155.335(a) and (b)).

NYSOH must send an annual renewal notice that contains the information by which NYSOH will use to redetermine a qualified individual's projected eligibility for that year (45 CFR § 155.335(c)(3)). If a qualified individual does not respond to the notice after a 30-day period, NYSOH must redetermine that individual's eligibility using the information and projected eligibility provided in the annual renewal notice (45 CFR § 155.335(g), (h)). NYSOH must ensure this redetermination is effective on the first day of the coverage year or in accordance with the rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) regarding effective dates, whichever is later (45 CFR § 155.335(i)). The rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) are not pertinent here.

Redetermination During a Benefit Year

When an eligibility redetermination results in a change in the amount of APTC for a part of the benefit year, NYSOH must recalculate the amount of APTC in such a manner as to account for any advance payments already made (or not made) on behalf of the tax filer, such that the recalculated advance payment amount is projected to result in total advance payments for the benefit year that correspond to the tax filer's total projected premium tax credit for the overall benefit year (45 CFR § 155.330(g)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Any change resulting from redeterminations during a benefit year should be made effective the first day of the month following the date of the notice of redetermination, except that redeterminations resulting from changes made after a date specified by the state, which can be no earlier than the 15th of the month, may not be made effective until the first day of the month after the month following the date of the notice of redetermination. (45 CFR § 155.330(f)(1) and (2)). New York has specified that changes made after the 15th of a given month will take effect the month after the following month.

End of Tax Year Reconciliation

At the end of a tax year, a person who elects to take APTC to help pay for the cost of an insurance premium must file a tax return to reconcile any differences between the amount of income the person reported to NYSOH and their actual gross income for that year. A person who received less tax credit than her maximum entitlement, based on gross income, may receive an income tax refund, or owe less in taxes. A person who received more tax credit than his maximum entitlement, based on gross income, will owe the excess as an additional income tax liability (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as well as your eligibility for advance premium tax credits was effective February 1, 2017.

NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for health insurance and financial assistance to help pay for that health insurance annually. NYSOH must issue a renewal notice that contains the individual's projected eligibility. If an individual does not respond to this notice, NYSOH must issue an eligibility determination for the upcoming coverage year based on the information contained in the renewal notice.

On October 15, 2016, NYSOH issued an annual renewal notice in your case. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help with paying for your health coverage. You were directed to update the information in your account by December 15, 2016 or the financial help you were receiving might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your eligibility for financial assistance and your enrollment in a qualified health plan was terminated effective January 1, 2017.

You testified that you have had health problems since October 2016 including [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. You testified that occasionally you forget to look at your mail.

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail.

You testified that you did not know you needed to renew your application until you contacted your insurance carrier on December 19, 2016 to pay your premium and you were advised that you did not have health insurance coverage for January 2017.

However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your annual renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated to ensure your enrollment in your health plan and eligibility for financial assistance would continue. When you failed to timely update your account, NYSOH properly found that you were no longer eligible to remain in your former coverage effective December 31, 2016.

The record shows that on December 29, 2016 you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan.

The date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On December 29, 2016, you selected a qualified health plan, so your enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the month following January; that is, on February 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's December 30, 2016 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED because it properly began your enrollment in your qualified health plan as well as your advance premium tax credits on February 1, 2017.

Decision

The December 30, 2016 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 11, 2017
