Decision

Decision Date: May 5, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000014703

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective no earlier than February 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On October 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account between November 16, 2016 and December 15, 2016 or you might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2016.

On November 26, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your gold-level qualified health plan would end on December 31, 2016.

On December 19, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2017. That notice also said that you need to pick a plan.

Based on your January 9, 2017 updated application, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost, effective February 1, 2017.

Also on January 9, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the preliminary eligibility determination insofar as it began your enrollment in a qualified health plan on February 1, 2017, and not January 1, 2017.

On January 10, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective February 1, 2017. That notice also said that you need to pick a plan.

Also on January 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a letter confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with a monthly premium responsibility of $714.64, effective February 1, 2017.

On April 7, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and the record reflects, that at all times relevant you received all of your notices from NYSOH by electronic mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any electronic alerts regarding any renewal notice in your NYSOH account telling you that you needed to update your application to renew your eligibility.
- 3) You testified that you did not know that you needed to update your account until you visited your doctor's office and were advised that you no longer had health insurance.
- 4) The record reflects that on January 9, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.
- 5) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement in your qualified health plan as of January 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Annual Eligibility Redetermination

Generally, NYSOH must conduct annual eligibility redeterminations for qualified individuals who are seeking financial assistance through insurance affordability programs for the upcoming year, such as tax credits and cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, or Child Health Plus. In such cases, NYSOH is required to request that the qualified individual provide updated income and family size information for use in an eligibility redetermination for the upcoming year (see 45 CFR § 155.335(a) and (b)).

NYSOH must send an annual renewal notice that contains the information by which NYSOH will use to redetermine a qualified individual's projected eligibility for that year (45 CFR § 155.335(c)(3)). If a qualified individual does not respond to the notice after a 30-day period, NYSOH must redetermine that individual's eligibility using the projected eligibility provided in the annual renewal notice (45 CFR § 155.335(g), (h)). NYSOH must ensure this redetermination is effective on the first day of the coverage year or in accordance with the rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) regarding effective dates, whichever is later (45 CFR § 155.335(i)). The rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) are not pertinent here.

Electronic Notices

If the individual elects electronic communications, NYSOH must send an email or other electronic communication alerting the individual that a notice has been posted to his or her account and send a notice by regular mail within three business days if the electronic communication cannot be delivered (45 CFR § 155.230(d); 42 CFR § 435.918(b)(4), (5)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective February 1, 2017.

NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for health insurance and financial assistance to help pay for that health insurance annually. NYSOH must issue a renewal notice that contains the individual's projected eligibility. If an individual does not respond to this notice, NYSOH must issue an eligibility determination for the upcoming coverage year based on the information contained in the renewal notice.

On October 19, 2016, NYSOH issued an annual renewal notice in your case. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether or not you qualify for financial help with paying for your health coverage. You were asked to update the information in your account between November 16, 2016 and December 15, 2016 or the financial help you were receiving might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your enrollment in a qualified health plan was terminated effective December 31, 2016.

However, you testified and the record reflects that you elected to receive alerts regarding notices from NYSOH electronically. You credibly testified that you did not receive an electronic alert regarding the renewal notice, which directed you to update the information in your NYSOH account. There is no evidence in your account documenting that any email alert was sent to you regarding the renewal notice or the need to renew your application or that the renewal notice was sent by regular mail had the electronic communication been undeliverable.

Therefore, it is concluded that NYSOH did not give you the proper notice that you needed to update your account.

You first renewed your eligibility for health insurance through NYSOH for 2017 on January 9, 2017 and, therefore, we must assume that this is the information that would have been used had you been timely informed of the need to update your account, as stated in the renewal notice.

Therefore, the January 10, 2017 eligibility redetermination notice is MODIFIED to state that, effective January 1, 2017, you were newly eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost, and the January 10, 2017 plan enrollment notice is MODIFIED to state that your enrollment in your qualified health plan is effective January 1, 2017.

Decision

The January 10, 2017 eligibility redetermination notice is MODIFIED to state that, effective January 1, 2017, you were newly eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost.

The January 10, 2017 plan enrollment notice is MODIFIED to state that your enrollment in your qualified health plan is effective January 1, 2017.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to effectuate the changes listed above.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 5, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your enrollment in your qualified health plan is being changed to begin as of January 1, 2017.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to effectuate this change.

You will be responsible for any unpaid premium for the month of January 2017, which you can arrange to pay with the health plan directly.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
