Decision

Decision Date: March 29, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000014761

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $366.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Procedural History

On December 2, 2016, you submitted an application for financial assistance.

On December 3, 2016, New York State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $366.00 in advance premium tax credit (APTC), effective January 1, 2017. The notice also stated that you were ineligible to receive cost-sharing reductions because your household income was over the allowable income limits for that program.

On January 11, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the December 3, 2016 eligibility determination, insofar that you and your spouse were not eligible for a higher level of APTC.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 21, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim three dependents on that tax return.
- 2) Your application states that you were not planning on taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return. However, you testified that you may be taking a tuition and fee deduction on your 2017 tax return for your son's school tuition for around $100.00.
- 3) You are seeking insurance for yourself and your spouse.
- 4) The application that was submitted on December 2, 2016 listed an annual household income of $75,600.00, consisting of approximately $3,600.00 you earn from your employment and $72,000.00 your spouse earns from his employment.
- 5) You testified that you work as a substitute teacher and your income varies. You further testified that you have earned about $1,200.00 in income since January 1, 2017.
- 6) Your application states that you live in ██████ County.
- 7) You testified that you are seeking a greater amount of financial assistance through this appeal.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $28,440.00 for a five-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.21% and 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were eligible for an APTC of up to $366.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on December 2, 2016 listed an annual household income of $75,600.00 which consisted of your spouse's expected annual income of $72,000.00 and your expected annual income as $3,600.00. You testified that your income varies because you are a substitute teacher. You testified that $3,600.00 was an estimated annual income amount, and that you are unsure of what your actual annual income will be. You further testified that you have earned $1,200.00 since January 1, 2017. You testified that you plan on taking a tuition and fee deduction for your son's school tuition on your 2017 income tax return of around $100.00.

However, the eligibility determination relied upon the $75,600.00 that was put into your application on December 2, 2016 and the amounts you testified to during the hearing were not significantly different, therefore the analysis will be based on that amount.

You and your spouse are in a five-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim three dependents on that tax return.

You reside in ██████ County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for a couple through NYSOH costs $912.91 per month.

An annual income of $75,600.00 is 265.82% of the 2016 FPL for a five-person household. At 265.82% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 8.68% of income, or $546.84 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a couple in your county ($912.91 per month) minus your expected contribution ($546.84 per month), which equals $366.07 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you and your spouse to be eligible for up to $366.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you and your spouse were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $75,600.00 is 265.82% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

Since the December 3, 2016 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you and your spouse were eligible for up to $366.00 per month in APTC, and ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
