Issues

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your child were not eligible for financial assistance as of January 4, 2017?

Procedural History

On March 3, 2016, NYSOH received an application for financial assistance.

On March 4, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the March 3, 2016 application. The notice stated that you and your child were eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2016. You and your child were subsequently enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care (MMC) plan, with such coverage beginning April 1, 2016.

On January 4, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for the upcoming coverage year.

On January 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew the health insurance of you and your child. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources as of January 4, 2017, both you and your child were found no longer qualified for health care coverage under Medicaid, child Health Plus, the Essential Plan, or for tax credits and cost-sharing reductions. The notice did state that you and your child qualified to purchase health coverage at full cost. This eligibility determination was effective March 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 12, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination the termination of Medicaid coverage for you and your child.

On January 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice confirming that the MMC plan coverage for you and your child would end effective February 28, 2017.

On May 18, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and remained open for the sole purpose of providing you an opportunity to submit as additional evidence: a copy of your 2016 tax return reflecting your income from IRA and pension sources. The record was to be closed 15 days after the hearing date, or upon the receipt of the above referenced documents, whichever occurred earlier.

On June 1, 2017, you provided a copy of your 2016 tax return to the Appeals Unit through your NYSOH account.

Accordingly, the record was closed on June 1, 2017.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your NYSOH account reflects, that you are divorced and expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of head of household. You will claim child as your sole dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for both yourself and your child.
- 3) You and your child were each found eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2016.
- 4) On January 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a renewal and eligibility determination notice stating that based on information obtained by NYSOH from federal and state sources as of January 4, 2017, both you and your child were no longer eligible for financial assistance, effective March 1, 2017. This was because your household income exceeded $64,080.00.
- 5) At the request of the Hearing Officer, you provided a copy of your 2016 tax return reflecting that your annual adjusted gross income during 2016 was $53,103.00. You further testified that you anticipated approximately the same amount of income during 2017 from both IRA and pension distributions.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 6) You testified that you are not currently employed.
- 7) You testified that between your pension and annuity income, you received about $4,000.00 per month, but could not give a precise amount.
- 8) The documentation you provided states that you did not take any deductions on your 2016 tax return other than deductions relating to your income tax, real estate taxes, and home mortgage interest, totaling $18,092.00.
- 9) You live in Nassau County, New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid Renewal

In general, NYSOH must review Medicaid eligibility once every 12 months or “whenever it receives information about a change in a beneficiary’s circumstances that may affect eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual’s account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your child were not eligible for financial assistance as of January 4, 2017.

You were originally found eligible for Medicaid effective March 1, 2016

Generally, NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for Medicaid once every 12 months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. Based on information available from state and federal sources as of January 4, 2017, you and your child were found no longer eligible for financial assistance, effective March 1, 2017. This was because your household income exceeded $64,080.00.

You testified that you did not agree with that determination since you and your child had been previously found eligible for Medicaid, and your overall income has not changed since 2016.

On January 4, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility based on information obtained from federal and state sources. These sources apparently reflected that your household income exceeded $64,080.00. However, the information relied upon reflected only two part-time positions your child had during 2016, but did not include any income from an IRA, pension, or annuity source.

Accordingly, since the record does not support the determination that you and your child were not eligible for financial assistance solely based on the information contained in your account as of January 4, 2017, it is hereby

RESCINDED.

At the request of the Hearing Officer, you provided a copy of your 2016 tax return that reflecting that your annual adjusted gross income during 2016 was $53,103.00, which was comprised of (1) $94.00 in taxable interest (line 8a), (2) $1,623.00 in taxable refunds, credits or offsets of state and local income taxes (line 10), (3) $12,581.00 in taxable IRA distributions (line 15b), and (4) $38,805.00 in taxable distributions of pensions and annuities (line 16b).

You credibly testified that your anticipated income during 2017 would be the same as you received during 2016.

Accordingly, we find there is sufficient information that your case should be RETURNED to NYSOH for a redetermination of the eligibility of you and your child based on an annual household income of $53,103.00 in a two-person household in Nassau County.

Decision

The January 4, 2017 eligibility determination notice is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH for a redetermination of the eligibility of you and your child based on an annual household income of $53,103.00 in a two-person household in Nassau County as of January 4, 2017.
