Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid from August 1, 2016 through August 31, 2016?

Procedural History

On November 22, 2016, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance and indicated that you were seeking help for paying for medical bills for August 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016.

On November 23, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective as of January 1, 2017.

Also on November 23, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid from August 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016 because the program you are eligible for cannot pay for any care you received in the past.

On January 18, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as you were denied retroactive Medicaid for the months of August 2016, September 2016, and October 2016.

On May 2, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. During the hearing, you requested to amend your appeal to limit your request for retroactive Medicaid to the month of August 2016. The Hearing Officer granted the request. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to May 19, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

On May 19, 2017, NYSOH received the requested documentation, which was made part of the record as "Appellant's Exhibit A." The record was closed that same day.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking Medicaid coverage from August 1, 2016 to August 31, 2016.
- 2) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 federal income tax return as single, and will claim no dependents.
- 3) You submitted an application for financial assistance on November 22, 2016.
- 4) Your application submitted on November 22, 2016, states that for the month of August 2016 your income was $1,769.22. You testified that amount was incorrect because you took a week's unpaid vacation in the month of August 2016.
- 5) You faxed in a paystub, dated August 12, 2016, for a gross pay amount of $875.21 and a paystub, dated August 26, 2016, for a gross pay amount of $862.31 (see Appellant's Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 7).
- 6) You testified that you will take an annual deduction of $200.00 in tuition and fees on your income tax return.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

Student Loan Interest Deductions

"Adjusted gross income" is the gross income of the taxpayer minus the deductions permitted (26 USC § 62). Subject to some limitations, interest on a qualified educational loan can be deducted from adjusted gross income in an amount up to $2,500 in interest paid by taxpayers during the taxable year, whose yearly income does not exceed $160,000 (26 USC § 221; see also 26 USC § 62 (17)).

Retroactive Medicaid

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of an initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 USCA § 1396A (34); 42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for August 1, 2016 through August 31, 2016.

You are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you file your taxes with a tax filing status of single and claim no dependents on your tax return.

You submitted an application for financial assistance on November 22, 2016 and requested help in paying for medical bills for the past three months; that is, from August 1, 2016 to October 31, 2016. During the hearing, you requested to amend your appeal to include only the month of August 2016 in your request for retroactive Medicaid. The Hearing Officer granted this request.

When an individual files an initial application for Medicaid, his or her eligibility for retroactive Medicaid depends on the date of application. To this end, it does not matter whether that initial application resulted in Medicaid going forward. Instead, an individual, who has filed an initial application for Medicaid through NYSOH, has the right to be evaluated for Medicaid for the three months before the month of his or her application.

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied. Since you applied for Medicaid in November 2016, three months before that month includes August 2016.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid in August 2016, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during August 2016, so the issue turns to your financial eligibility that month.

You testified that you are paid bi-weekly. You faxed a paystub dated August 12, 2016 for a gross pay amount of $875.21 and a paystub dated August 26, 2016 for a gross pay amount of $862.31. Therefore, the record indicates that in the month of August 2016, you had a monthly household income of $1,737.52 (see Appellant's Exhibit A,

However, at the hearing you credibly testified to additional income information that was not a part of your initial application. You testified that during 2016 you claimed an annual tuition and fees deduction in the amount of $200.00. If considered on a monthly basis ($200.00/12 = $16.67 per month), this would result in a total modified monthly adjusted gross income of $1,720.85 ($1,737.52 - $16.67) for the month of August 2016.

Since your income of $1,720.85 was more than the maximum monthly allowable income limit of $1,367.00 to be eligible for Medicaid in August 2016, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage during that month.

Therefore, the November 23, 2016 eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid in the month of August 2016, is correct and is AFFIRMED.
