Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective January 1, 2017 and not February 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 15, 2016, you updated your application for health insurance through NY State of Health (NYSOH).

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility redetermination stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH. This eligibility was effective January 1, 2017.

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On January 30, 2017, you contacted NYSOH regarding your enrollment.

Also on January 30, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the enrollment confirmation notice insofar as it began your enrollment in a qualified health plan on January 1, 2017, and not February 1, 2017.

On January 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that you were disenrolled from your qualified health plan as of January 1, 2017 for failure to timely pay your premium.

On February 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On April 25, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You submitted an application to NYSOH on December 15, 2016. You testified, and the record reflects, that you completed this application yourself on-line.
- 2) You testified, and the record reflects, that you selected a qualified health plan on December 15, 2016.
- 3) Your enrollment in the plan became effective January 1, 2017.
- 4) You testified that although you received the notices from NYSOH advising you that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan as of January 1, 2017, you did not review the notices until the last week of January 2017.
- 5) You testified that you have paid your premium every month, except for the January 2017 premium.
- 6) Your NYSOH account reflects that on January 30, 2017, your plan initiated termination of your enrollment in your qualified health plan.
- 7) Your NYSOH account reflects that your qualified health plan terminated you for non-payment as of January 1, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you contacted your qualified health plan and NYSOH the last week of January 2017 to disenroll from your qualified health plan for January 2017.
- 9) The record reflects that you first contacted NYSOH to disenroll from your qualified health plan for the month of January 2017 only, on January 30, 2017.

- 10) Your NYSOH account reflects that on February 8, 2017, your plan initiated reinstatement of your enrollment in your qualified health plan as of January 1, 2017.
- 11) You testified that you did not use your qualified health plan in January 2017, but that you did use your plan in February 2017.
- 12) You testified that you want your enrollment in your qualified health plan to begin on February 1, 2017. You explained that this is because you were undergoing a course of treatment in December 2016, and had a few final appointments in January 2017, which treatment was through a low-cost clinic and had already been paid for, and therefore, you did not need coverage for January 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

The effective date of coverage by a qualified health plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i)). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to terminate his or her coverage with a qualified health plan coverage, with appropriate notice to the NYSOH or qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(1)(i)).

For enrollee-initiated terminations, the last day of coverage is either:

- 1) The termination date specified by the enrollee, if the enrollee provides reasonable notice (at least 14 days before the requested termination date);
- 2) Fourteen days after the enrollee requests the termination, if they do not provide reasonable notice; or
- 3) On a date on or after the date the enrollee requests the termination, if the enrollee's qualified health plan issuer and the enrollee agree to such a date

(45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(i)-(iii)).

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to retroactively terminate or cancel their enrollment in a qualified health plan if:

- 1) The enrollee demonstrates that they attempted to terminate their coverage and experienced a technical error that did not allow the coverage to be terminated, and requests retroactive termination within 60 days after they discovered the technical error.
- 2) The enrollment in the qualified health plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or HHS, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Such enrollee must request cancellation within 60 days of discovering the unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous enrollment.
- 3) The enrollee was enrolled in a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by any third party, including third parties who have no connection with the Exchange, and requests cancellation within 60 days of discovering of the enrollment.

(45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(iv)(A-C)).

NYSOH permits a qualified health plan to terminate an individual's coverage if (1) the enrollee is no longer eligible for coverage or (2) non-payment of the premiums by the enrollee (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(i)-(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective January 1, 2017 and not February 1, 2017.

The record shows that on December 15, 2016, you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan. On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that your enrollment in your qualified health plan was effective January 1, 2017.

When an individual changes information in their application on or before the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from the change effective the first day of the following month. Additionally, the date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month.

As you selected a plan for enrollment on December 15, 2016, it properly began the first day of the month following December 2016; that is, on January 1, 2017.

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to be retroactively disenrolled from their qualified health plan if the enrollee demonstrates that there was a technical error that should have allowed them to terminate coverage earlier, or if their enrollment in the plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities, or the enrollee was enrolled into a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by a third party.

There is no indication in the record that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 16, 2016 enrollment notice was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Furthermore, there is no indication that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 16, 2016 enrollment notice was without your knowledge or consent, as you accessed your NYSOH account on-line yourself on December 15, 2016 and selected a plan for enrollment.

Therefore, there is no basis to find that NYSOH must permit you to retroactively terminate or cancel your enrollment in your qualified health plan.

The record reflects that on January 30, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and requested that you be disenrolled from your qualified health plan for January 2017, as you did not need coverage for the month of January 2017.

Enrollees must be allowed to terminate their coverage with a qualified health plan at the date they specify if they provide reasonable notice to NYSOH or to their health plan. Reasonable notice is defined as at least 14 days prior to the requested termination date.

Since you do not qualify to be retroactively disenrolled from your coverage and you did not provide reasonable notice to NYSOH, NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in your qualified health plan was effective January 1, 2017 and not February 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's December 16, 2016 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED because it properly began your enrollment in your qualified health plan on January 1, 2017.

You testified that you paid your premiums to your qualified health plan for each month, however, you did not pay your January 2017 premium.

On January 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were disenrolled from your qualified health plan for non-payment of premiums, effective January 1, 2017.

On February 8, 2017, your plan advised NYSOH that you had been reinstated into your plan with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to address reinstatement by plans following termination for non-payment, we cannot reach the merits as to the proper date for reinstatement following disenrollment for non-payment of premiums by a qualified health plan. Therefore, your appeal of the February 8, 2017 enrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

Decision

The December 16, 2016 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED.

Your appeal of the insurer's reinstatement of your enrollment in your qualified health plan following termination for non-payment of premiums, effective January 1, 2017, is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 28, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility
