On January 3, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $296.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective February 1, 2017. The notice stated that you qualified for APTC because your income was between $16,395.00 and $47,520.00, which is the income range for APTC based on your household size.

Also on January 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan would end effective January 31, 2017.

On January 30, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination, insofar as you were not determined eligible for the Essential Plan.

On June 11, 2017, you faxed two 2016 W-2 forms to NYSOH Appeals Unit. No other documentation was received. The record was closed at the end of business that day.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on March 25, 2017 listed annual household income of $31,581.00, consisting of income you earn through your employment.
- 4) You testified that you work per diem in part, and that not all your earnings are taxable. Your employer submitted a letter outlining your pay details, confirming that some of your earnings are not taxable.
- 5) You testified that you are paid biweekly, and submitted two paystubs: dated February 28, 2017 for a gross $970.00 and dated March 15, 2017 for a gross $1,661.75, which yields a gross income of $2,631.75 over four weeks, or $31,581.00 over twelve months.
- 6) You testified that your earnings vary paycheck to paycheck, and that the March 15, 2017 paycheck is the largest paycheck you have received.
- 7) You credibly testified that in 2017 you expect to earn about the same income as you earned in 2016.
- 8) You submitted two W-2s as proof of your taxable income in 2016: from [REDACTED] for a gross $587.82 and from [REDACTED] for a gross $26,473.02, yielding a gross taxable household income for 2016 of $27,060.84.
- 9) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2016 tax return.
- 10) Your application states that you live in Kings County.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 300% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $228.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on March 25, 2017 listed an annual household income of $31,581.00 which was based on the paystubs you had submitted, and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in Kings County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $31,581.00 is 265.83% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 265.83% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 8.68% of income, or $228.44 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($228.44 per month), which equals $228.02 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $228.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $31,581.00 is 265.83% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan, effective May 1, 2017.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $31,581.00 is 265.83% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the March 26, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information provided, you were eligible for up to $228.00 per month in APTC, not eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and not eligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

However, based on documentation that you submitted subsequent to the hearing, as well as your testimony, a more accurate representation of your household income is $27,060.84. Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility with a household size of one residing in Kings county, and an income of $27,060.84.
