Decision

Decision Date: June 9, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015478

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective January 31, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 13, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and to receive up to $637.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 13, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming you and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan with APTC and CSR, effective January 1, 2017.

On December 29, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating that coverage in you and your spouse's qualified health plan would end effective January 31, 2017.

On February 2, 2017, you contacted the NYSOH Account Review Unit and appealed the date you and your spouse were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, requesting the disenrollment be made effective December 31, 2016.

On April 14, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that your monthly premium payment of $307.00 beginning in January 2017 was too costly for you to afford even after the application of your APTC.
- 2) You testified that on December 28, 2016, you contacted NYSOH to disenroll you and your spouse from your silver level qualified health plan through NYSOH and to enroll in a bronze level plan.
- 3) You testified that a NYSOH representative advised you that your plan would end December 31, 2016 and that you would not be responsible to your insurance carrier for the January 2017 premium payment.
- 4) You testified that you are seeking retroactive disenrollment from you and your spouse's qualified health plan effective December 31, 2016.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to terminate his or her coverage with a qualified health plan coverage, with appropriate notice to the NYSOH or qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(1)(i)).

For enrollee-initiated terminations, the last day of coverage is either:

- 1) The termination date specified by the enrollee, if the enrollee provides reasonable notice (at least 14 days before the requested termination date);
- 2) Fourteen days after the enrollee requests the termination, if they do not provide reasonable notice; or

- 3) On a date on or after the date the enrollee requests the termination, if the enrollee's qualified health plan issuer and the enrollee agree to such a date

(45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(i)-(iii)).

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to retroactively terminate or cancel their enrollment in a qualified health plan if:

- 1) The enrollee demonstrates that they attempted to terminate their coverage and experienced a technical error that did not allow the coverage to be terminated, and requests retroactive termination within 60 days after they discovered the technical error.
- 2) The enrollment in the qualified health plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or HHS, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Such enrollee must request cancellation within 60 days of discovering the unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous enrollment.
- 3) The enrollee was enrolled in a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by any third party, including third parties who have no connection with the Exchange, and requests cancellation within 60 days of discovering of the enrollment.

(45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(iv)(A-C)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective January 31, 2017.

On December 13, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and to receive up to $637.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective January 1, 2017. You and your spouse subsequently enrolled into a qualified health plan.

On December 28, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating you and your spouse would be disenrolled from your qualified health plan, effective January 31, 2017.

You testified that you are seeking retroactive disenrollment from your qualified health plan effective December 31, 2016.

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to be retroactively disenroll from their qualified health plan if the enrollee demonstrates that there was a technical error that should have allowed them to terminate coverage earlier, or if their enrollment in the plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities, or the enrollee was enrolled into a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by a third party.

There is no indication in the record that you and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 13, 2016 enrollment notice was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous, nor was your and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Furthermore, there is no indication that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 13, 2016 enrollment notice was without your knowledge or consent.

Therefore, there is no basis to find that NYSOH must permit you to retroactively terminate or cancel your enrollment in a qualified health plan.

The record reflects that on December 28, 2016, you contacted NYSOH and requested that you and your spouse be disenrolled from your qualified health plan as you no longer wanted to remain enrolled.

Enrollees must be allowed to terminate their coverage with a qualified health plan at the date they specify if they provide reasonable notice to NYSOH or to their health plan. Reasonable notice is defined as at least 14 days prior to the requested termination date.

NYSOH terminated your insurance coverage with your qualified health plan effective January 31, 2017, which is the last day of the month following your request.

Since you do not qualify to be retroactively disenrolled from your coverage and you did not provide reasonable notice to NYSOH, NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's disenrollment in your qualified health plan was effective January 31, 2017.

Therefore, the December 29, 2016 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The December 29, 2016 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: June 9, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change you and your spouse's disenrollment date. Your enrollment in your qualified health plan ended as of January 31, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
