Decision

Decision Date: May 15, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015519

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective February 28, 2017?

Procedural History

On November 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost effective January 1, 2017.

Also on November 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan effective January 1, 2017.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating that coverage in your and your spouse's qualified health plan would end effective February 28, 2017.

On February 3, 2017, you contacted the NYSOH Account Review Unit and appealed the date you were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, requesting the disenrollment be made effective January 31, 2017.

On May 2, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you and your spouse became eligible for insurance through your employer as of February 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that on January 31, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to disenroll you and your spouse from your qualified health plan through NYSOH. There is no indication of this in your account.
- 3) On February 1, 2017 you and your spouse were disenrolled from your qualified health plan via your NYSOH account by username [REDACTED].”
- 4) You testified that you and your spouse are seeking retroactive disenrollment from your qualified health plan effective January 31, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to terminate his or her coverage with a qualified health plan coverage, with appropriate notice to the NYSOH or qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(1)(i)).

For enrollee-initiated terminations, the last day of coverage is either:

- 1) The termination date specified by the enrollee, if the enrollee provides reasonable notice (at least 14 days before the requested termination date);
- 2) Fourteen days after the enrollee requests the termination, if they do not provide reasonable notice; or
- 3) On a date on or after the date the enrollee requests the termination, if the enrollee's qualified health plan issuer and the enrollee agree to such a date

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(i)-(iii)).

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to retroactively terminate or cancel their enrollment in a qualified health plan if:

- 1) The enrollee demonstrates that they attempted to terminate their coverage and experienced a technical error that did not allow the coverage to be terminated, and requests retroactive termination within 60 days after they discovered the technical error.
- 2) The enrollment in the qualified health plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or HHS, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Such enrollee must request cancellation within 60 days of discovering the unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous enrollment.
- 3) The enrollee was enrolled in a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by any third party, including third parties who have no connection with the Exchange, and requests cancellation within 60 days of discovering of the enrollment.

(45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(iv)(A-C)).

NYSOH permits a qualified health plan to terminate an individual's coverage if (1) the enrollee is no longer eligible for coverage or (2) non-payment of the premiums by the enrollee (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(i)-(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective February 28, 2017.

On November 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost effective January 1, 2017. You and your spouse subsequently enrolled into a qualified health plan.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating that you and your spouse would be disenrolled from your qualified health plan effective February 28, 2017.

You testified that you and your spouse are seeking retroactive disenrollment from your qualified health plan effective January 31, 2017.

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to be retroactively disenroll from their qualified health plan if the enrollee demonstrates that there was a technical error that should have allowed them to terminate coverage earlier, or if their enrollment in the plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities, or the enrollee was enrolled into a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by a third party.

There is no indication in the record that your and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the November 21, 2016 enrollment notice was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous, nor was your enrollment in a qualified health plan the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Furthermore, there is no indication that your and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the November 21, 2016 enrollment notice was without your knowledge or consent.

Therefore, there is no basis to find that NYSOH must permit you and your spouse to retroactively terminate or cancel your enrollment in a qualified health plan.

You testified that you attempted to disenroll you and your spouse from your qualified health plan on January 31, 2017. The record reflects that on February 1, 2017, you logged in to your online account and requested that you and your spouse be disenrolled from your qualified health plan as you no longer wanted to remain enrolled.

Enrollees must be allowed to terminate their coverage with a qualified health plan at the date they specify if they provide reasonable notice to NYSOH or to their health plan. Reasonable notice is defined as at least 14 days prior to the requested termination date.

Notwithstanding the fact that there is no proof of contact on January 31, 2017, you did not provide reasonable notice to NYSOH or to your health plan for a January 31, 2017 end date.

NYSOH is unable to prorate monthly premiums, and properly terminated your and your spouse's insurance coverage with your qualified health plan effective February 28, 2017, which is the last day of the month following your request.

Since you and your spouse do not qualify to be retroactively disenrolled from your coverage and you did not provide reasonable notice to NYSOH, NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's disenrollment in your qualified health plan was effective February 28, 2017.

Therefore, the February 2, 2017 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 2, 2017 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 15, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility
