Decision

Decision Date: June 26, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015549

[REDACTED]

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 21, 2016, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

On December 22, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost, effective February 1, 2017.

On January 31, 2017, NYSOH records reflect that you attempted to enroll in a QHP under a new account, [REDACTED], but were prevented from doing so since you had an existing NYSOH account, [REDACTED].

On February 1, 2017, NYSOH received an update to your application for health insurance.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the February 1, 2017 application. The notice stated that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of $0.00, effective March 1, 2017. The notice also stated that you might be able to enroll in coverage if you qualified for a Special Enrollment Period (SEP). The notice advised you to sign into your account and answered the questions about the SEP for 2017.

On February 3, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On February 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "denial of SEP."

On May 12, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the denial of an SEP to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH.
- 2) You testified that with the assistance of a Navigator, you attempted to enroll in a QHP on January 31, 2017 around 8:00 p.m. ET. You further testified that you were unable to do so since you were forced to create a separate account since you were unable to log into your account due to not be able to locate your ID and password.
- 3) You testified that you were unable to follow up with a NYSOH representative to correct the account creation error since NYSOH had closed at 8:00 p.m. on January 31, 2017.
- 4) You testified that the following day, February 1, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and spoke with an NYSOH representative who assisted you in eliminating your new account, and processed your application under your original NYSOH account, [REDACTED]
- 5) You testified that you attempted to enroll in a QHP under [REDACTED], but were unable to do so since you did not qualify for an SEP.
- 6) You testified that you lost prior health insurance coverage on September 30, 2016.
- 7) You testified that since filing your application on February 1, 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.

- 8) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a qualified health plan sooner.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and “consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process” (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). “De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case” (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a SEP to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain any notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of an SEP does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony along with the February 4, 2017 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was “denial of SEP,” permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your request for an SEP.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. You testified that with the assistance of a Navigator, you attempted to enroll in a QHP on January 31, 2017 around 8:00 p.m. ET. You further testified that you were unable to do so since you were forced to create a separate account since you were unable to log into your account due to not be able to locate your ID and password.

You testified that you were unable to follow up with a NYSOH representative to correct the account creation error because NYSOH had closed at 8:00 p.m. on January 31, 2017.

You testified that the following day, February 1, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and spoke with an NYSOH representative who assisted you in eliminating your new account, and processed your application under your original NYSOH account, [REDACTED].

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you should sign into your account and answer the questions about the SEP for 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for an SEP, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

The record and your testimony indicate that your attempt to create an additional NYSOH account on January 31, 2017, to enroll in a QHP prior to the end of the open enrollment period, was the result an inability to locate your ID and password to access your account under [REDACTED].

Since the record does not indicate that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information, an SEP cannot be granted.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for an SEP.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of an SEP to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

NYSOH's denial of a SEP to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: June 26, 2017
